Post-prairie Jon Paul Fiorentino, Robert Kroetsch, 2005 Twenty five authors come together in this groundbreaking collection to recreate prairie poetry as it was known in the 20th century

Writing in Dust Jenny Kerber, 2011-03-17 Writing in Dust is the first sustained study of prairie Canadian literature from an ecocritical perspective Drawing on recent scholarship in environmental theory and criticism Jenny Kerber considers the ways in which prairie writers have negotiated processes of ecological and cultural change in the region from the early twentieth century to the present The book begins by proposing that current environmental problems in the prairie region can be understood by examining the longstanding tendency to describe its diverse terrain in dualistic terms either as an idyllic natural space or as an irredeemable wasteland It inquires into the sources of stories that naturalize ecological prosperity and hardship and investigates how such narratives have been deployed from the period of colonial settlement to the present It then considers the ways in which works by both canonical and more recent writers ranging from Robert Stead W O Mitchell and Margaret Laurence to Tim Lilburn Louise Halfe and Thomas King consistently challenge these dualistic landscape myths proposing alternatives for the development of more ecologically just and sustainable relationships among people and between humans and their physical environments Writing in Dust asserts that reading environmentally can help us to better understand a host of issues facing prairie inhabitants today

including the environmental impacts of industrial agriculture resource extraction climate change shifting urban rural demographics the significance of Indigenous understandings of human nature relationships and the complex often contradictory meanings of eco cultural metaphors of alien invasiveness hybridity and wildness The Columbia Granger's Index to Poetry in Anthologies, 2007 The Columbia Granger's Index to Poetry in Anthologies Tessa Kale, 2007

For over a hundred years The Columbia Granger's Index to Poetry in Anthologies has been the preeminent index for answers to questions about the world of poetry identifying the author of a poem or the anthologies in which it can be found when only a title first line or last line is known This latest edition a must have for libraries brings its index up to date as of May 31 2006 This latest version features 85 000 classic and contemporary poems by 12 000 poets Also included are works in translation and for the first time poetry in Spanish Vietnamese and French The subject organization of the poems is especially useful Hundreds of new subjects have been added indexing poems on highly relevant topics such as Osama bin Laden the war in Iraq Dick Cheney the Internet and Rosa Parks as well as timeless subjects like the Bill of Rights unspoken love faith and inspiration Our impressive team of consultants includes J D McClatchy Harvey Shapiro and former poet laureate Mark Strand From The Norton Anthology of Poetry 2005 edition to Poetry after 9 11 and Garrison Keillor's Good Poems this new edition puts readers in touch with the best of the latest anthologies and the lasting favorites West of Eden Sue Sorensen, 2008

These 17 essays ponder the character of prairie literature What is prairie literature now what has it been and what is its future That the prairies are west of Eden is an idea only and a somewhat mischievous one Is this spot distant from the glory of the garden Writers have often pondered the ambiguous sanctity of the prairies while those who recruited settlers certainly exploited the notion These varied essays engage with Margaret Laurence Rudy Wiebe and Neil Young They present analysis of NFB films and the gopher as icon Here are strategies for teaching and views of the Canadian prairies from abroad This is a significant collection of fresh views of prairie literature Open Letter, 2008 Prism International, 2010 The Theory of the Loser Class Jon Paul Fiorentino, 2006 In the early nineties Beck sang I'm a loser baby so why don't you kill me and changed everything Suddenly it wasn't so bad to be a nerd or an oddball loser chic had begun Ten years later after all the computer nerds have had the last laugh Jon Paul Fiorentino turns to Thorstein Veblen's seminal social science text from 1899 The Theory of the Leisure Class Veblen's book introduced to our culture the terms conspicuous consumption and nouveau riche it identified a new demographic the leisure class and demarcated its position in culture The Theory of the Loser Class then is an art manifesto for the aesthetics and ethics of loser culture If the Anthony Michael Hall character in The Breakfast Club wrote poems and deep down you know that he did they'd probably read a lot like The Theory of the Loser Class Drawing on texts ranging from Thorstein Veblen's groundbreaking The Theory of the Leisure Class to Star Wars the nerd Bible for inspiration this carefully crafted suite of poems documents the tribulations and insecurities of everyone's inner geek Fiorentino maps the psychic territory of abjection across the shopworn spaces of suburban Winnipeg where a landscape of aging strip malls burned out houses and living rooms littered with video game consoles serves as a mirror to the inner states of urban ennui among the socially inept and the culturally vexed By turns compassionate funny and filled with selfloathing The Theory of the Loser Class is never without the possibility of redemption And if a loser falls says the narrator of Right in the Spine I feel it The Theory of the Loser Class is the perfect soundtrack for the alienated and the hopeless Quill & Quire,2005 This is a Small Northern Town Rosanna Deerchild,2008 These are poems about what it means to be from the north a town divided along colour lines and a family dealing with its history of secrets At it s core this collection is about the life of a Cree girl and the places she finds comfort and escape Rosanna Deerchild is Cree from South Indian Lake Manitoba Back cover Tesseract Ten Robert Charles Wilson,Edo Van Belkom,2006-10-31 Stunning Canadian writing What do Parisian buttons nesting spiders and men from Venus have in common They are all part of Tesseract Ten the sparkling new addition to the 21 year old Tesseract Collection Tesseract Ten joins volumes One through Nine and Tesseract Q forming an eleven volume anthology of Canada s best Science Fiction Fantasy and Speculative Literature Following the Tesseract tradition of having different editors for each collection Tesseract Ten was compiled by two of the world s finest speculative fiction writers International Who's who in Poetry Geoffrey Handley-Taylor,1974 International Who's who in Poetry Ernest Kay,1972 Dictionary Catalog of the Harris Collection of American Poetry and Plays, Brown University Library, Providence, Rhode Island Brown University. Van Cleave,2001 Diaspora constitutes a powerful descriptor for the modern condition of the contemporary poet the spokesperson for the psyche of America The poems in American Diaspora Poetry of Displacement focus on the struggles and pleasures of creating a home physical and mental out of displacement exile migration and alienation To fully explore the concept of diaspora the editors have broadened the scope of their definition to include not only the physical act of moving and immigration but also the spiritual and emotional dislocations that can occur as for Emily Dickinson and other poets even in a life spent entirely in one location More than one hundred and thirty contemporary poets reflect and mediate rage and bless as they tell their own stories In short this is an anthology of American poetry that draws upon the sensitivity tenderness rebelliousness patience and spirituality that point to the future of our nation
