Postures Of The Mind Essays On Mind Morals:

Postures of the Mind Annette Baier, 1985 Postures of the Mind was first published in 1985 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions Annette Baier develops in these essays a posture in philosophy of mind and in ethics that grows out of her reading of Hume and the later Wittgenstein and that challenges several Kantian or analytic articles of faith She questions the assumption that intellect has authority over all human feelings and traditions that to recognize order we must recognize universal laws descriptive or prescriptive that the essential mental activity is representing and that mental acts can be analyzed into discrete basic elements combined according to storable rules of synthesis In the first group of essays Varieties of Mental Postures Baier evaluates the positions taken by philosophers ranging from Descartes to Dennett and Davidson Among her topics are remembering intending realizing caring representing changing one's mind justifying one's actions and feelings and having conflicting reasons for them The second group of essays Varieties of Moral Postures explores the sort of morality we get when all of these capacities become reflective and self-corrective Some deal with particular moral issues our treatment of animals our policies regarding risk to human life our contractual obligations others with more general questions on the role of moral philosophers and the place of moral theory These essays respond to the theories of Hobbes Kant Rawls and MacIntyre but Baier's most positive reaction is to David Hume Postures of the Mind affirms and cultivates his version of a moral reflection that employs feeling and tradition as well as reason "Moral Sense" und praktische Vernunft Bernd Gräfrath, 2016-12-13 Hume's Morality Rachel Cohon, 2008-10-02 Rachel Cohon offers an original interpretation of the ethical thinking of the 18th century philosopher David Hume She focuses on two claims that human beings figure out what is good or evil by using our feelings or emotions and that some of the good traits we recognize are produced by informal social agreement and teaching Moral Disagreements Christopher W. Gowans, 2013-04-03 Can moral disagreements be rationally resolved Can universal human rights be defended in face of moral disagreements The problem of moral disagreement is one of the central problems in moral thinking It also provides a stimulating stepping stone to some of the perennial problems of philosophy such as relativism scepticism and objectivity Moral Disagreements is the first anthology to bring together classic and contemporary readings on this key topic Clearly divided into five parts The Historical Debate Voices from Anthropology Challenges to Moral Objectivity Defenses of Moral Objectivity and New Directions the anthology presents readings from the following key thinkers Sextus Empiricus Chagnon Wong MacIntyre Aquinas Shweder Brink Rawls Montaigne Turner Nussbaum Narayan Hume Mackie Gewirth Nietzsche Williams Berlin A distinctive feature of the anthology is that it brings philosophers into dialogue with well known anthropologists Also included is a comprehensive introduction by Christopher Gowans introducing the problem of moral disagreement to those coming to the topic for the first time The Proud Self Lorenzo Greco, 2025-05-30 This book presents a novel interpretation of Hume

as a proponent of sentimental virtue ethics This interpretation sheds light on the nature of Hume's ethics as well as its relevance for contemporary debates in moral philosophy The book starts by developing an understanding of the self in Hume based on the passion of pride Contrary to the common view that Hume denies the unity of the self by diluting it into a bundle or collection of different perceptions the author argues that by focusing on pride it is possible to identify in Hume a firm notion of the self as having a sentimental nature that can be explained in narrative terms Pivoting on this narrative self he shows how it accounts for the Humean notion of the virtuous person by holding together in a harmonious whole several central issues in Hume's moral philosophy including sympathy the point of view from which we make moral judgements the practical nature of ethics and the role that reflection plays in it and the definition of perfect character Finally the author maintains that Humean virtue ethics so understood has the individual at its core representing a secular and pluralist alternative to neo Aristotelian versions discussed today The Proud Self will appeal to scholars and graduate students working on Hume 18th century philosophy virtue ethics and moral psychology

Feminist Perspectives in Medical Ethics Helen B. Splitting the Difference Martin Benjamin, 1990 Politics is often characterized as the art of compromise the implication being that compromise is desirable and that insight imagination discipline and skill are all necessary for a compromise Compromise in ethics however is quite another matter there it is usually regarded as a sign of weakness or lack of integrity From Socrates and Sir Thomas More to Elizabeth Cady Stanton Gandhi and Martin Luther King Jr we honour these men and women not only for the nature of their convictions but also for their unwavering refusal to compromise

Moral Philosophy's Double Vision David Gottschling, 1993

Philosophic Exchange, 1995

Back to the Rough Ground! Margaret Rose O'Connor, 1996

Good Lives and Moral Education Evan Simpson, 1989 This book develops a conservative conception of morality and its implications for moral education The argument stresses practices of living over rationalistic theories At its center is an account of the education of the emotions in which cultivating reflective imagination is more important than mastering universal principles The central contrast is with Lawrence Kohlberg and his theory of moral development Simpson sees extending democratic practices of discussion and argument as best answering the question how lacking certain standards of judgment we can decide between competing conceptions of human progress Genetic

Engineering Michael Boylan, Kevin E. Brown, 2001 A philosopher and a biologist offer a textbook to be used alone or with other texts in an ethical theory course that focuses on issues raised by genetic engineering Students are expected to have at least some familiarity with both biology and philosophy Health Care Ethics in Canada Françoise Baylis, 1995
