Postwoolf Litigation:

Litigation Liabilities Brian Watson, 2002 This practice work examines the standards of conduct required of litigation lawyers It explains the particular obligations which impact on the day to day work of litigation lawyers together with their statutory contractual and common law duties The Solicitors' Journal, 2003 Online Dispute Resolution for Consumers in the European Union Pablo Cortés, 2010-09-13 A PDF version of this book is available for free in open access via www.tandfebooks.com as well as the OAPEN Library platform www.oapen.org It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 3.0 license and is part of the OAPEN UK research project E commerce offers immense challenges to traditional dispute resolution methods as it entails parties often located in different parts of the world making contracts with each other at the click of a mouse The use of traditional litigation for disputes arising in this forum is often inconvenient impractical time consuming and expensive due to the low value of the transactions and the physical distance between the parties Thus modern legal systems face a crucial choice either to adopt traditional dispute resolution methods that have served the legal systems well for hundreds of years or to find new methods which are better suited to a world not anchored in territorial borders Online Dispute Resolution ODR originally an off shoot of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR takes advantage of the speed and convenience of the Internet becoming the best and often the only option for enhancing consumer redress and strengthening their trust in e commerce This book provides an in depth account of the potential of ODR for European consumers offering a comprehensive and up to date analysis of the development of ODR It considers the current expansion of ODR and evaluates the challenges posed in its growth The book proposes the creation of legal standards to close the gap between the potential of ODR services and their actual use arguing that ODR if it is to realise its full potential in the resolution of e commerce disputes and in the enforcement of consumer rights must be grounded firmly on a European regulatory model The Northern Ireland Legal Quarterly, 2002 Tort Law Mark Lunney, Ken Oliphant, 2008 Each section begins with a clear overview of the key points of the law before fully explaining and illustrating the topic through substantial case extracts and further commentary BOOK JACKET The New Law Journal, 2002 Current Medical/legal Issues in Personal Injury Litigation Hugh C. H. Koch, 2001 This report examines medico legal issues in post Woolf personal injury litigation The interface between legal and psychological perspectives are illustrated with reference to current practice and recent case law Key issues addressed include claimant reliability treatment and rehabilitation decision making by experts lawyers and barristers and the overall quality of medical legal processes Revival: Helping Parents in Dispute (2001) Greg Mantle, 2017-07-28 This title was first published in 2001 When marriages break down most parents experience difficulty in agreeing on contact or residence arrangements for their children Family Courts Services provide mediation as a way of resolving differences and many parents accept this offer of assistance Featuring extensive empirical research this book examines the effectiveness of family mediation services and challenges the
