Poverty Urbanization And Development Policy A Philippine Perspective:

Poverty, Urbanization, and Development Policy A. M. Balisacan, 1994 Poverty and under development are the subjects of this book While the focus is on urban poverty the principal themes running throughout the book apply as well to rural poverty The book traces the roots of the Philippine poverty problem to industrialization and spatial policies that unduly encouraged concentration of infrastructure and social services in major urban centers to trade and macroeconomic policies that severely penalized agriculture labor intensive exports and small to medium scale manufacturing establishments to public spending policies that accorded little attention to human capital formation for the poor and to the lack of strong complementarity of state and market Taking into account economic constraints and political economy considerations the book discusses ways on how to enhance pro poor pro market and pro growth policies particularly those aimed at correcting disincentives against rapid employment expansion balanced urban rural growth and human capital formation Poverty, Growth and Institutions in Developing Asia E. Pernia, A. Deolalikar, 2003-10-07 The theme of this book is that economic growth is key but institutions and other national and subnational attributes matter as well They are critical to explaining differences in social development and poverty reduction across countries and subnational areas that cannot be accounted for by growth alone The book concludes that a more complete strategy needs to consider various institutional factors at the national and subnational levels to achieve rapid and sustained poverty reduction Indeed paying attention to these factors will benefit both growth and poverty reduction Environments of the Poor in Southeast Asia, East Asia and the Pacific Aris Ananta, 2014-11-11

This book provides examples of possible triple win solutions for simultaneously reducing poverty raising the quality of the environment and adapting to climate change The book provides empirical evidence and observations from sixteen case studies in Southeast and East Asia and from the Pacific It argues that a spatial approach focussing on the environments in which the poor and vulnerable live would trigger changes for development policies and implementation that better balance environmental and social concerns In line with the post 2015 Millennium Development Goals MDG and Sustainable Development Goals SDG agenda emphasizing integrated development approaches for the slum poor the upland poor the dryland poor the coastal poor and the flood affected wetland poor would also bring the environment and poverty agenda closer The book emerged from a cooperation of the Asian Development Bank ADB with the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies ISEAS in partnership with experts from research institutes and think tanks in the Asian region Living Standards in Southeast Asia Anne Booth, 2025-10-01 Living Standards in Southeast Asia Changes over the Long Twentieth Century 1900-2015 examines changes in living standards across the ten countries of Southeast Asia Indonesia Malaysia Singapore Philippines Thailand Brunei Myanmar Vietnam Cambodia and Laos from the early years of the 20th century to the early 21st century It covers both the last decades of the colonial period the transition to independence and the decades from 1960 to the 2010s The study uses a range of monetary and non monetary indicators to assess how living standards have changed over time It examines the outcomes in the context of debates about economic growth inequality and poverty alleviation which began in the 1960s and 1970s and continue to the present

Critical Reflections on Cities in Southeast Asia Tim Bunnell, Lisa Drummond, Ho, 2021-11-15 Critical Reflections draws together the multi disciplinary research of scholars working in on cities across Southeast Asia The fourteen essays collected in the volume are organised into three thematic sections re conceptualisation competition and intervention Collectively these reflections contribute to and interrogate the expanding urban and regional studies literature The volume constitutes a critical corrective to the existing literature which all too often seeks to diagnose contemporary urban trends everywhere from a small number of mostly Western paradigmatic cases Yet while acknowledging the increasing interconnectedness and shared global orientation of most cities in Southeast Asia the volume is wary of positing an equally generalising regional model Individually these essays attend to the diversity of contemporary urban experiences in Southeast Asia

Landscapes of Globalization Philip F. Kelly, 2012-10-02 In this critical and sophisticated analysis Philip F Kelly challenges the conventional definition of globalization as an irresistible and inevitable force to which societies must succumb By tracing the consequences of global economic integration in the Philippines he argues that global processes are constituted accommodated mediated and resisted in social processes at multiple scales from the national economy to the village and the household

Rural Development and Agricultural Growth in Indonesia, the Philippines and Thailand Takamasa Akiyama, Donald F. Larson, 2004 Focuses on economic growth in the agricultural sectors of Indonesia the Philippines and Thailand The agricultural sectors of these economies have diverged considerably over the last 40 years The volume investigates the ways in which policy institutions investments and resource constraints have driven this divergence

Reconstructing Poverty Profiles in the Philippines Arsenio M. Balicasan, 1999

The Philippines David Joel Steinberg, 2018-02-19 A unified nation with a single people the Philippines is also a highly fragmented plural society Divided between uplander and lowlander rich and poor Christian and Muslim between those of one ethnic linguistic and geographic region and those of another the nation is a complex mosaic formed by conflicting forces of consensus and national identity and of division and instability It is not possible to comprehend the many changes in the Philippines such as the rise and fall of Ferdinand Marcos or the revolution that toppled him without an awareness of the religious cultural and economic forces that have shaped the history of these islands These forces formed the focus of the first edition of The Philippines Of that 1982 edition the late Benigno Aquino Jr noted that anyone wanting to understand the Philippines and the Filipinos today must include this book in his must reading list The fourth edition has been updated through the final years of the Ramos presidency and contains a new section on the impact of President Estrada Income Distribution & Sustainable Economic Development in East Asia Ragayah Haji Mat Zin, Medhi Krongkaew, 2008 Mindanao 2000 Development Framework Plan: without special title, 2000 The Philippine Economy Dante B.

 Canlas, Shigeaki Fujisaki, 2001 This book contains essays that discuss major economic concerns and challenges including the impact of globalization on the country's economy and issues and prospects of several market oriented policy reforms liberalization of foreign trade direct investment deregulation of industries and privatization and their implications for the Philippine economy ASEAN Economic Bulletin, 1998 Public Administration Plus Governance, 2007
