Poverty Ethnic Identity And Health Care:

Poverty, Ethnic Identity, and Health Care Bonnie Bullough, Vern L. Bullough, 1972 Poverty, Ethnic Identity, and Health Care Bonnie Bullough, Vern L. Bullough, 1972 An American Health Dilemma: Race, medicine, and health care in the United States 1900-2000 W. Michael Byrd, Linda A. Clayton, 2000 This volume is a comprehensive collection of critical essays on The Taming of the Shrew and includes extensive discussions of the play's various printed versions and its theatrical productions. Aspinall has included only those essays that offer the most influential and controversial arguments surrounding the play. The issues discussed include gender authority, female autonomy and unruliness, courtship and marriage, language and speech, and performance and theatricality. An American Health Dilemma W. Michael Byrd, Linda A. Clayton, 2001-12-21 First published in 2002 An American Health Dilemma is the story of medicine in the United States from the perspective of people who were consistently officially mistreated, abused or neglected by the Western medical tradition and the US health care system. It is also the compelling story of African Americans fighting to participate fully in the health care professions in the face of racism and the increased power of health corporations and HMOs. This tour de force of research on the relationship between race, medicine and health care in the United States is an extraordinary achievement by two of the leading lights in the field of public health. Ten years out, it is finally updated with a new third volume taking the story up to the present and beyond, remaining the premiere and only reference on black public health and the history of African American medicine on the market today. No one who is concerned with American race relations, with access to and quality of health care, or with justice and equality for humankind can afford to miss this powerful resource. Poverty, Ethnic Identity, and Health Care [by] Bonnie Bullough [and] Vern L.
