Kibele, 2012-10-02

Regional mortality differences are one dimension of health inequalities but its trends and determinants in Germany are widely unknown This book examines and illustrates patterns of regional mortality in Germany with focus on small area differentials and their changes over time It identifies explanatory factors at individual and regional level Mortality differences between eastern and western Germany exist but small area mortality differentials are often greater Though the main spatial mortality patterns remain this study provides evidence that some distinct changes in the small area mortality patterns in Germany especially among women occurred within a short period of time Mortality inequalities at younger ages and in behavior related causes as well as differences in socioeconomic conditions contribute strongly to regional mortality differences in Germany The book shows that the complex interplay between individual and regional level mortality risk factors requires a multidimensional approach to reduce regional mortality inequalities Routledge Handbook of

Sustainable Development in Asia Sara Hsu, 2018-05-30 In the present global context some countries still face many challenges to bringing about inclusive efficient and environmentally sustainable development Simultaneously the stakes of survival are rising as climate change exacerbates both environmental and social ills Asia as a region is particularly vulnerable as it is densely populated and includes both developed and developing countries The Routledge Handbook of Sustainable Development in Asia seeks to examine these issues in depth Presenting a comprehensive literature review as well as numerous case studies this book examines sustainable development from economic and social perspectives as well as from an environmental viewpoint Divided into seven parts the topics addressed include Environmental challenges Energy dependence and transition Economic justice Social welfare Sustainable governance Providing comprehensive coverage of a wide variety of countries in the region this handbook will be useful for students and scholars of sustainable development environment and society and Asian Studies in general The Issues Panel for Equity in Health Adam J.
