McGillivray,2008-10 This book provides analytical insights into if and how the targets adopted by the international community are likely to be achieved A key feature of the analysis is the recognition that most of the MDG targets are endogenously related These inter dependencies are crucial not only in analyzing the MDGs but also devising strategies

Workshop on Poverty Status in Uganda ,1995 DAC Guidelines and Reference Series Promoting Pro-Poor Growth ,2007-03-07 This policy statement looks at how policies for pro poor growth and other policy areas need to interact to make sustainable inroads into poverty reduction There are three key messages rapid and sustained poverty reduction require a pace and pattern of growth that enhances the ability of poor women and men to contribute to and benefit from growth policies to tackle the multiple dimensions of poverty including issues of gender and environment are mutually reinforcing and should go hand in hand empowering the poor is essential for bringing about the policies and investments needed for pro poor growth Poverty and Social Progress Maurice Parmelee,1916 Specifically on the raga of Indian classical music

Poverty, Urbanization, and Development Policy A. M. Balisacan,1994 Poverty and under development are the subjects of this book While the focus is on urban poverty the principal themes running throughout the book apply as well to rural poverty The book traces the roots of the Philippine poverty problem to industrialization and spatial policies that unduly encouraged concentration of infrastructure and social services in major urban centers to trade and macroeconomic policies that severely penalized agriculture labor intensive exports and small to medium scale manufacturing establishments to public spending policies that accorded little attention to human capital formation for the poor and to the lack of strong complementarity of state and market Taking into account economic constraints and political economy considerations the book discusses ways on how to enhance pro poor pro market and pro growth policies particularly those aimed at correcting disincentives against rapid employment expansion balanced urban rural growth and human capital formation Annual Progress Report Sixth National Development Plan (SNDP).
