Power And Gender Vol 13 Social Relations In Theory And Practice:

Equalising Opportunities, Minimising Oppression Dylan Tomlinson, Winston Trew, 2005-06-29 Anti Racist Practice ARP Anti Discriminatory Practice ADP and Anti Oppressive Practice AOP form a trinity of concepts nested into one another which have evolved in welfare services over the last fifteen years They tend to have developed as forms of practice panaceas and as a result have been subject to both unrealistic expectations and at times to political ridicule This book clarifies the distinctions between three key concepts ARP ADP and AOP Critically and constructively analysing these three approaches to practice it reappraises their potential in the light of emerging equality issues in the health service With contributions from leading teachers and practitioners in the field Equalising Opportunities provides students and practitioners in health and social care with a clear overview of an area where there is much confusion and imperfect understanding

Education in Popular Culture Roy Fisher, Ann Harris, Christine Jarvis, 2008-05-06 Education in Popular Culture explores what makes schools colleges teachers and students an enduring focus for a wide range of contemporary media What is it about the school experience that makes us wish to relive it again and again The book provides an overview of education as it is represented in popular culture together with a framework through which educators can interpret these representations in relation to their own professional values and development The analyses are contextualised within contemporary historical and ideological frameworks and make connections between popular representations and professional and political discourses about education Through its examination of film television popular lyrics and fiction this book tackles educational themes that recur in popular culture and demonstrates how they intersect with debates concerning teacher performance the curriculum and young people s behaviour and morality Chapters explore how experiences of education are both reflected and constructed in ways that sometimes reinforce official and professional educational perspectives and sometimes resist and oppose them Education in Popular Culture will stimulate critical reflection on the popular myths and professional discourses that surround teachers and teaching It will serve to deepen analyses of teaching and learning and their associated institutional and societal contexts in a creative and challenging way

Controversies in Analytical Psychology Robert Withers, 2003 How can controversy promote mutual respect in analytical psychology Analytical psychology is a broad church and influences areas such as literature cultural studies and religion However in common with psychoanalysis there are many different schools of thought and practice which have resulted in divisions within the field Controversies in Analytical Psychology picks up on these and explores many of the most hotly contested issues in and around analytical psychology A group of leading international Jungian authors have contributed papers from contrasting perspectives on a series of key controversies Some of these concern clinical issues such as what helps patients get better or how closely analysts should work with the transference Other contributions focus on the relationship between analytical psychology and other disciplines including evolutionary theory linguistics politics and religion A critical eye is cast over Jungian theories and practices and a number of questions are raised are they homophobic do they denigrate women do they confuse absolute with narrative truth are the frequency of sessions chosen for political rather than clinical reasons Controversies in Analytical Psychology encourages critical thinking on a variety of issues helping foster dialogue and investigation in a climate of mutual respect and understanding It will be invaluable for Jungian analysts and psychoanalysts in training and practice and psychotherapists Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1996 Gender and Catastrophe Ronit Lentin,1997-12 Part I Genders and Genocides Struggle for Ethnic Identity Pyong Gap Min,1999-01-20 Dr Pyong Gap Min and Rose Kim present a compilation of narratives on ethnic identity written by first 1 5 and second generation Asian American professionals In an attempt to reconcile the dichotomies long associated with being both Asian and American these narratives trace the formation of each author s ethnic identity and discuss its importance in shaping his or her professional career The narratives touch upon common themes of prejudice and discrimination loss and retention of ethnic subculture ethnic versus non ethnic friendship networks and racial and inter racial dating patterns When coupled with Dr Min s comprehensive introductory chapter on contemporary trends in the study of ethnicity these narratives prove that constructing one s ethnicity is truly a dynamic process and serve as an invaluable resource for anyone interested in teaching or studying the concepts of ethnic identity The Front Line Runs Through Every Woman Eleanor O'Gorman,2011 A Zimbabwe specific study focusing on the lives of women in a small locale Chiweshe during the anti colonial insurgency this book is also a challenge to established and still current modes of thought and research orientations which over simplify the complex realities women face in the full range of violent conflicts both past and present By contextualizing the voices of women of Chiweshe not only is an important and under developed aspect of Zimbabwean and African history revealed but a new approach to comprehending the highly tensioned lives of women in war is presented which is characterized here as Gendered Localised Resistance This is examined through the prism of life in the Protected Villages in Chiweshe experienced in everyday social relations revolutionary roles and food security It traces how women forged strategies of survival and resistance in the middle of guerrilla warfare pitted between the forces of the state and the revolutionary resistance movements The book can be read as a unique and richly detailed account of the lives of women during the Zimbabwe civil war and liberation struggle as a wider argument about how researchers can approach and incorporate lived experience into accounts of larger dynamics war revolution and as a substantial and important contribution to feminist historiography and writings on women and war Publisher s website Culture and Identity Suzanne Stern-Gillet,1996 International Politics Robert J. Power/Gender H. Lorraine Radtke,Henderikus J. Stam,Professor Henderikus J Stam,1994-01-01 This book investigates the complex strands that inextricably link gender and power relations demonstrating how gender is constructed through the practices of power The contributors argue that female and male are shaped not only at the micro level of everyday social interaction but also at the macro level where social institutions control and regulate the practice of gender Power Gender explores how theorizing on power is affected when gender is taken into account post Foucauldian theory of gender and power whether it is possible to separate gender and power the connections between gender and the practice of power in political contexts and how these connections work in the specific contexts of women s lives and whether the construction of sex or gender is an expression of power relations British Education Index ,2005 Strategic Organizational Design for Canadian Firms in a Global Economy Hari Das,1998
