Post Islamic Classicism A Visual Essay On The Architecture Of Mohamed Makiya:

Post-Islamic Classicism Kanan Makiya, 1990 Metamorphosing dead Abbasid forms into living modern architecture lies at the roots of Mohamed Makiya's classicism as an architect. This essay charts the stages of this metamorphosis from the Khulafa Mosque 1963 and the Kuwait State Mosque one of the largest in the world through to the vast and visionary schemes for Iraq of the late 1980s. Makiya's formally complex and nuanced architecture the author argues is continuous harmonious and celebratory of an Islamic past. It is there too innocent too romantic to be post modern in its sensibility nor does it assume the revolution in values that modernism brought in its wake. None the less many of modernism's discoveries about materials and space making are deployed in an original way. The uneven combination between what is acquired from the modern and mythologized about the past is what makes Makiya's architectural vision unique so unlike that of any of his contemporaries. In the final analysis the architecture's dogged consistency in this regard is the source of its beauty. Spätkoloniale Moderne Regina Göckede, 2016-12-05 Unter welchen Umständen ist es westlichen Akteuren gelungen über nationale und kulturelle Grenzen hinweg einheitliche Architekturparameter zu etablieren? Warum ist dieses Projekt regelmäßig gescheitert? Wie lassen sich andere Transformationsprozesse fassen? Die spätcoloniale Moderne der 1930er bis 1960er Jahre steht für eine vielschichtige und nicht selten widersprüchliche Phase innerhalb der Globalisierung der Architekturmoderne. Sie ist von kolonialen Kontinuitäten wie von den konkurrierenden Modernitätstendenzen lokaler Akteure gekennzeichnet. Indem die Studie gleichzeitig als machtkritische Diskursanalyse, historische Architektursoziologie und politische Ikonographie angelegt ist, gelingt es exemplarisch die semantische Polyvalenz der spätcolonialen Architekturmoderne herauszuarbeiten. Das Spektrum der untersuchten Projekte umfasst Le Corbusiers Planungen für das französisch besetzte Algier, Ernst Mays Stadterweiterung für das kolonial britische Kampala sowie die Interventionen Frank Lloyd Wrights und TACs in das haschemitische und frührepublikanische Bagdad. The Making of Modern Muslim Selves through Architecture Farhan S.

Karim, Patricia Blessing, 2023-10-20 This collection seeks to explore alternative definitions of bounded identities facilitating new approaches to spatial and architectural forms. Taking as its starting point the emergence of a new sense of boundary emerged from the post 19th century dissolution of large heterogeneous empires into a mosaic of nation states in the Islamic world. This new sense of boundaries has not only determined the ways in which we imagine and construct the idea of modern citizenship but also redefines relationships between the nation, citizenship, cities and architecture. It brings critical perspectives to our understanding of the interrelation between the accumulated flows and the evolving concepts of boundary in predominantly Muslim societies and within the global Muslim diaspora. Essays in this book seek to investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness that have been devised to define, enable, obstruct, accumulate and/or control flows, able to disrupt bounded territories or identities. More generally, the book explores how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implication of defining modern self The essays in this volume collectively address how the construction of self is primarily a spatial event and operated within the crucial nexus of power knowledge space Contributors investigate how architecture mediates the creation and deployment of boundaries and boundedness how architecture might be considered as a means to understand the relationship between flows and boundaries and its implications for how we define the modern self Part of the Critical Studies in Architecture of the Middle East series Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art & Architecture: Three-Volume Set Jonathan Bloom, Sheila Blair, 2009-05-14 The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture deals with all aspects of Islamic art and architecture ranging from the Middle East to Central Asia to Southeast Asia and Africa The volumes cover all subject areas in Islamic art including artists rulers writers architecture ceramics sculpture metalwork painting calligraphy textiles and more The Grove Encyclopedia of Islamic Art and Architecture provides unparalleled scope and depth on this rapidly growing area of interest It offers fully updated articles and bibliography as well as more than 500 plans maps diagrams illustrations and colour plates Similar in scope and design to The Grove Encyclopedia of Decorative Arts this three volume reference work contains articles of various lengths in alphabetical order The shorter more factual articles none shorter than 50 words are combined with larger multi section articles tracing the development of the art forms in various geographical locations Calamities of Exile Lawrence Weschler, 1999-04 These three essays these novellas call them what you will are extraordinary tales about excruciating modern themes individual responsibility national identity and courage In each case the reader has to ask himself What would I have done 3 halftones Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Sustainability in Urban Planning and Design Amjad Almusaed, Asaad Almssad, Linh Truong - Hong, 2020-12-16 This book has been prepared to embody the major and efficient applications of the different duties and the role of sustainability in urban planning and design by a new reading of the city structure and composition as well as offering a solid and clear concept for this kind of science The book aims to illustrate various theories and methods of the treatment of the modern ideas of metropolitan life The book is divided into two parts and contains 23 chapters Architecture in Global Socialism Łukasz Stanek, 2020-01-14 How socialist architects planners and contractors worked collectively to urbanize and develop the Global South during the Soviet era In the course of the Cold War architects planners and construction companies from socialist Eastern Europe engaged in a vibrant collaboration with those in West Africa and the Middle East in order to bring modernization to the developing world Architecture in Global Socialism shows how their collaboration reshaped five cities in the Global South Accra Lagos Baghdad Abu Dhabi and Kuwait City Łukasz Stanek describes how local authorities and professionals in these cities drew on Soviet prefabrication systems Hungarian and Polish planning methods Yugoslav and Bulgarian construction materials Romanian and East German standard designs and manual laborers from across Eastern Europe He explores how the socialist development path was adapted to tropical conditions in Ghana in the 1960s and how Eastern European architectural traditions were given new life in 1970s Nigeria He looks at how the differences between socialist foreign trade and the emerging global construction market were exploited in the Middle East in the closing decades of the Cold War Stanek demonstrates how these and other practices of global cooperation by socialist countries what he calls socialist worldmaking left their enduring mark on urban landscapes in the postcolonial world Featuring an extensive collection of previously unpublished images Architecture in Global Socialism draws on original archival research on four continents and a wealth of in depth interviews This incisive book presents a new understanding of global urbanization and its architecture through the lens of socialist internationalism challenging long held notions about modernization and development in the Global South The Contemporary Mosque Renata Holod, Hasan-Uddin Khan, 1997

This survey of the contemporary scene presents projects ranging from buildings commissioned by wealthy private individuals and local Muslim communities to imposing State Mosques serving as symbols of national prestige Mosques with strikingly modern designs for which the latest materials and construction techniques have been used contrast with examples in regional architectural styles notably in Southeast Asia and West Africa using traditional materials Contemporary
