Postcards From The Past Edwardian Images Of Greater Vancouver And The Fraser Valley:

Postcards from the Past Fred Thirkell, Robert Scullion, 1996 City of Vancouver Heritage award winner 2003 Postcards From The Past provides a nostalgic and enlightening glimpse of Vancouver and surrounding environs during its first great decade of growth years now known as the Edwardian Era Authors Fred Thirkell and Bob Scullion have presented a collection of outstanding postcard images complemented by historical anecdotes and amusing asides Complete with maps showing the sites of the original photos this collection allows readers to gain a new perspective of a grand time and a magnificent place

Vancouver & Beyond Fred Thirkell, 2000 An anthology of 50 stories about Vancouver and environs in the early years of the 20th century These stories grew out of a collection of picture postcards not just any old postcards but particularly appealing real photo cards that seemed to be waiting to have their stories told While some of the images are not uncommon most of the pictures are rare if not one of a kind survivors of the golden age of postcards which encompassed the years between 1900 and 1914 the relatively short period of time when Vancouver ended its days as a frontier town and became a significant Canadian city

Breaking News Fred Thirkell, Bob Scullion, George Alfred Barrowclough, 2004 Winner of a City of Vancouver Heritage Award 2005 Before the First World War photographs of major news events were rarely seen in the daily newspapers the technology was still too new to make their use viable Filling the gap and providing the missing images were the postcard photographers who could make their breaking news photos available on the street the day after an event occurred George Alfred Barrowclough was one of those photographers Barrowclough had the eye of an artist and the nose of a newsman His images of Vancouver and the surrounding areas stand out over those of other postcard photographers of his day in that they are more people centred and action oriented capturing the lives and appearances of the people living in and around Vancouver in the decade before the Great War Drawing from postcards that Barrowclough produced between 1908 and 1912 award winning authors Fred Thirkell and Bob Scullion have selected images for Breaking News that showcase the photographer's focus on people and events In Vancouver in those years you looked to newspapers for words you looked to Barrowclough for news This is Fred Thirkell and Bob Scullion's sixth book in the postcard genre Several of their earlier books have also won City of Vancouver Heritage awards Victoria Then & Now Nick Russell,2014 Messages on Edwardian Postcards Freda Gittos,2022-01-28 The Edwardian era 1901-1910 was known as the Golden Age and a time of new inventions and machinery It was during this short period that the first cars aeroplanes and the telephone were introduced into society In this book we have nostalgic examples of social history depicted on postcards gold miners in the Forest of Dean Rose with her rag and bones horse drawn cart a lady chimney sweep pushing her brushes and various images including harvesting rural crafts and transport This was also the time of the Art Nouveau movement and other postcards show the delightful work of the artists Alphonse Mucha and Raphael Kirchner The Suffragette campaign dominated the Edwardian era and included is a photograph of the Suffragettes marching down Cheltenham High Street with banners advertising a meeting at the town hall The Edwardian era was indeed a Golden Age Postcards from the Past Greg Ray,2021-11-05 Vancouver's Past Frederick W.
