Postmodernism And The Other New Imperialism Of Western Culture:

Postmodernism and The Other Ziauddin Sardar, 1998 Postmodernism has often been presented as a new theory of liberation that promotes pluralism and gives representation to the marginalised peoples of the non west and other cultures In this major assessment of postmodernism from a non western perspective Ziauddin Sardar offers a radical critique of this view Covering the salient spheres of postmodernism from architecture film television and pop music to philosophy consumer lifestyles and new age religions Sardar reveals that postmodernism in fact operates to further marginalise the reality of the non west and confound its aspirations By tracing postmodernism s roots in colonialism and modernity Sardar demonstrates that the dominant contemporary intellectual fashion peddling an insidiously oppressive and subtle revisionism is the most comprehensive onslaught on the non west ever experienced In stern retort the author offers ways in which the peoples of the non west can counter the postmodern assault and survive with their identities histories and cultures intact Marxism

Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory Dave Hill, 2002-01-01 Written by renowned British and American educational theorists Marxism Against Postmodernism in Educational Theory a substantially revised edition of the original 1999 work examines the infusion of postmodernism and theories of postmodernity into educational theory policy and research

Celebrating a Life Beyond “Normal” Christopher Jones, 2025-05-28 The book is a Festschrift celebrating the 70th birthday of Ziauddin Sardar a scholar and public intellectual known for his work on postnormal times theory and Islamic thought The theme centers on Sardar s impact on various fields emphasizing his contributions to understanding Islam in a globalized world envisioning alternative futures and critiquing dominant societal paradigms while advocating for diversity justice and hope in a world characterized by accelerating change and complexity Described as Britain s own polymath Sardar is a leading voice in postnormal times theory a framework for understanding our increasingly turbulent and unpredictable world Contributors including younger scholars mentored by Sardar explore the breadth of his work across diverse fields such as Islamic thought Examining his contributions to understanding the Quran Muslim futures and navigating the complexities of faith in a globalized world Futures studies Highlighting his critical approach to envisioning alternative futures and challenging dominant narratives of progress and development Social and cultural critique Analyzing his perspectives on postmodernism technology and the interplay of tradition and modernity Examining Sardar s life and intellectual journey emphasizing his commitment to truth diversity and social justice this festschrift provides insights into his iconoclastic personality sharp wit and dedication to nurturing younger generations of thinkers Readers will gain a deeper appreciation for Sardar s contributions to navigating the complexities of our postnormal world and inspiring the creation of transnormal futures futures that are more diverse just and hopeful This book was originally published as a special issue of World Futures The Journal of New Paradigm Research Return to Postmodernism Klaus Stierstorfer, 2005 The Disjunctive Empire of International Relations Leong Yew, 2003 Yew imparts that contemporary forms of imperialism revolve around a disjunctive logic allowing cultural civilizing and solipsistic feelings of classical European imperialism to interoperate with newer and morally rectified strains of American superpower dominance In order to explore how such an interoperability is possible this book begins with a theoretical overview of how imperialism should be conceptualized how it operates and how it produces a type of economy that allows it to evolve in accordance with historical transformations without losing sight of its ongoing emphasis of Western hegemony ambivalent form of US imperialism is constituted leading to the inability within American society to effectively handle non state political opposition There are therefore a number of intended readerships which include researchers and academics interested in new ways of thinking about imperialism and international relations and a wider audience in cultural studies postcolonial studies and critical theory

Studia Fennica ,2003 Living in the Shadow of the Cross Paul Kivel,2013 Living in the Shadow of the Cross exposes how Christian hegemony punishes the poor destroys the environment and contributes to our seemingly endless war on terror This landmark work emphasizes the power of people to build strong movements for resistance The Muslim World Book Review ,2003 Futures The Journal of Policy, Planning, and Futures Studies ,1999 From Politics Past to Politics Future Alan Mayne,1999-03-30 Mayne provides an integrated analysis of contemporary and future politics and government He first examines major problems and issues occurring worldwide surveys different regimes and assesses the wide variety of active and emerging political movements Mayne then explores political paradigms and ideologies through a main political spectrum to various alternatives He outlines some possible elements for a new political paradigm that would be holistic in several different ways Finally he outlines scenarios for three possible futures and presents conclusions that indicate what can be done to achieve a political transition to maximize the prospects for a good human future in the 21st century Western Structures Meet Native Traditions Cheryl Woolsey Des Jarlais,2008-08-28 As Western education globalizes its cultural issues become evident contrasting with local learning methods Western ethnocentrism and colonialism have reshaped societies affecting global education Cheryl Woolsey Des Jarlais emphasises how examining these assumptions is crucial as education s moral role resurfaces Imagining Otherness Audrius Beinorius,2006 Towards an African Identity of Higher Education Sipho Seepe,2004 Art Journal ,1960 Der Islam im 3. Situating Globalization Cynthia Nelson, 2000 The range of perspectives and original materials dealt with here highlights the renewed urgency of the struggle for cultural autonomy and voice within the context of globalization Each author explores how the various processes at both the local and global levels intersect to create new discourses and debates around the indigenization of knowledge If a new wind of cultural decolonization is blowing through the Arab Middle East and is having profound impact on the lives of men and women then we should expect a new scholarship to emerge in order to grasp it This book is a contribution in that direction A key dimension concerns the issue of borders and boundaries These are both real and imaginary i e symbolic and metaphoric hegemonic and counter hegemonic Among these borders are spatial ones that determine individuals and communities everyday location and place in the world these include boundaries of class gender territory and language Each of these separations in turn has embedded in it and rests on constructions of imaginary borders and boundaries The real and imaginary do not exist as two disparate entities but are inextricably linked to each other in a dialectical move that simultaneously enables and disables movement and action Current re visioning of globalization challenges past suppositions Globalization is a new form of an ongoing process that took inception during the heyday of colonialism It might serve as a descriptive term to articulate the current historical period but it remains theoretically problematic and imprecise Situating Globalization picks up on the problematics of power and its dispersal and concentration The bearers of these cultural flows seek legitimacy from their potential constituency by positing their language cultural and religious as local and therefore inherently in opposition to the hegemonic cultural knowledge that has seeped in from outside and led to disempowerment of local peoples and knowledges Bearers make no mention to this Islamist knowledge of the foreignness of this idiom to many
