Apocalyptic Postmodern Vision in the Select Novels of John Updike Dr. Zhao Yang, Ms. Long Na, 2023-01-06 John Updike's vision of life and American society is apocalyptic as he wrote novels to depict the present dilemmas of the Americans and the future challenges of the country and the global world He was also confronted with the riddle of life and existence like Dostoevsky and with a view to find the answers to the mysteries of life and truth he turned to Kierkegaard and Karl Barth who had evolved the dialectical method to explore reality and truth Barth's dialectical method was derived from Kierkegaard who believed that truth is not found in the operation of Hegel's method of thesis and anti thesis but rather in the dialectical tension between truth and truth Kierkegaard wrote Every truth is truth only to a certain degree when it goes beyond the counter point appears and it becomes untruth Kierkegaard Word of God and Word of Man 206 John Updike stated that the purpose of his writing novels and stories is to examine everything for God's fingerprints In the 1960's when he started writing his name was associated with other writers such as John Barth Robert Coover and Thomas Pynchon busy in experimenting new themes and strategies Updike ignored the main stream of contemporary fiction and distanced himself from the contemporary writers His mission was to write a new kind of fiction to create a new kind of world to depict the new future of mankind the way Karl Marx had done
