Postmodernizing The Faith:

Postmodernizing the Faith Millard J. Erickson, 1998 The dean of evangelical theologians explores six evangelical responses both positive and negative to postmodernism

The Merging of Theology and Spirituality Larry S. McDonald, 2006-07-29 While acknowledging the inherent tension between evangelicals who emphasize theological propositions and those who emphasize personal experience Alister McGrath believes that spirituality represents the interface between ideas and life between Christian theology and human existence The book explores the centrality of McGrath's theology in the development of his views on spirituality McGrath does not approach spirituality from a theological void but instead uses his theological perspective as the foundation Through detailed examination of McGrath's previous work and the writing of other evangelicals The Merging of Theology and Spirituality offers an overview of a unique thinker's contributions and a guide for future theological and spiritual exploration

No Other Gods Phil Fernandes, 2002-10

Theosis Michael Paul Gama, 2017-02-20 Evangelicalism is reaching an inflection point The exodus of millennials from Evangelical churches and the growth of those self-identifying as Nones as in None of the Above for their church affiliation is concerning for the movement's future Evangelical leaders offer mixed responses to this challenge from circling the wagons to an enthusiastic Everything must change posture Theosis takes a different approach Seeking to understand Evangelicalism and its origins this book suggests that Evangelicalism is best understood as the sibling of western Enlightenment Modernity which served it well until the modern cultural ethos began to shift dramatically toward post modernity In this shift young Evangelicals principally postmoderns themselves are abandoning their father's Evangelicalism and its perceived linearity hyper rationalism either or exclusivity and faith expression too often perceived as stripped of mystery and wonder Theosis proposes that to move forward Evangelicalism must go back to the future to re-engage with the patristic understanding of salvation as theosis deification or union with God This radical return and broadening of the doctrine of salvation has begun to gain traction in Western Christendom slowly being considered as it has always in the Christian East as mere Christianity

Preaching Christ in a Postmodern Culture K. A. Beville, 2010-04-16 Starting with some observations relating to shifts in ecclesiology and identifying them as a move beyond contextualization to syncretism this work goes on to assess the feasibility of preaching in a postmodern culture which rejects both the idea of absolute truth and authority used as power It traces the historical and philosophical development of postmodernism The Enlightenment project is deemed to have failed and Christianity is perceived as an oppressive metanarrative In a world that is becoming increasingly sceptical and where preaching practitioners are becoming disillusioned this book offers some guidelines about preaching to postmoderns In a relational age rationality is impotent but the author distinguishes between authoritative and authoritarian preaching allowing hope for the survival of the homiletic task Humility is presented as preferable to certitude and persuasion is redefined The author suggests using an inductive mode of communication as a means of engaging postmodern listeners He signposts a way forward in the labyrinthine complexity of the new paradigm and demonstrates that the homiletic task is still feasible Thus this book will be of interest to teachers and students of theology as well as pastors desiring to develop a new apologetic strategy

Cultural Change and Biblical Faith John William Drane,2000 Western culture is undergoing a massive paradigm shift in the course of which our entire style of being will be radically transformed The changes now taking place are already highlighting areas of discontinuity and contradiction that we are impacting life not only in the West but all over the world Individuals in Western societies are dealing with the crisis in two equal yet opposite ways On the one hand many are choosing to immerse themselves in a selfish hedonistic lifestyle that apparently has no place at all for ultimate meanings At the same time however many others are trying to deal with the threatened disintegration of our culture by engaging in a self conscious search for spiritual answers that will form a secure basis for life in the third millennium In this fascinating examination of the future of the church in light of cultural change John Drane takes as diverse issues as the death of Princess Diana environmentalism film and the New Age movement to present ways in which the church should respond in order to be an effective and culturally relevant witness Drane s arguments are inextricably bound up with this own spiritual pilgrimage as he has struggled to discover what it means for him to be a Christian and this what he desires for his readers also That this book will be used to assist Christians to live their own lives in a way that will honour Christ and promote the Gospel in today s post modern environment In the words of Drane himself If it helps even one reader to engage creatively and Christianly with the culture then the effort may be worthwhile from back cover

Theologians of the Baptist Tradition Timothy George,David S. Dockery,2001 A resource for pastors students and teachers to discover Baptist contributions to Christianity s theological heritage

Truth Or Consequences Millard J. Erickson,2001-09-25 The term slowly filtered into our vocabularies about three decades ago and now permeates most discussions of the humanities Those who tout the promises and perils of this twentieth century intellectual movement have filled many a bookshelf In this book Erickson offers his own promised in depth analysis and constructive response

Renewing the Center Stanley James Grenz,2006 The second edition of this important foundational text for the emerging church includes a new foreword by Biran McLaren and a new afterword from John Franke updating the book for the contemporary church scene

Confessing History John Fea,Jay D. Green,Eric Miller,2010 Confessing History expands the discussion about religion s role in education and culture and examines what the relationship between faith and learning means for the academy today

Evangelical Theological Perspectives on Post-Vatican II Roman Catholicism Leonardo De Chirico,2003 De Chirico Istituto de Formazione Evangelica e Documentazione Padova Italy begins by identifying the elastic contours of Evangelical theology in its contemporary outlook Then he examines a number of Evangelical theologians who have interacted with Roman Catholicism in general and with Roman Catholic theology in particular over the past 40 sin

The Deconstruction of Baudrillard Aleksandar S. Santrač,2005 Jean Baudrillard is one of the outstanding representatives both of French poststructuralism and postmodernism

Because of radical criticism it was not possible for him to establish a logically coherent theoretical system the philosophical aspects of his work are specifically merged therefore into a critical asystematic fragmentarism which is the subject of this work From the critique of the political economy of the sign through critiques of rationalism reality progress truth history to the theory of simulation Baudrillard s specific para concepts fatal strategy symbolic exchange seduction hyperreality pataphysics etc are constantly fragmentarily present in the development of his thought These concepts are Baudrillard s attempt at disengagement from modern philosophy and his new unsystematic postmodern view of reality in general In the analysis of binary metaphysical oppositions reality simulation subject object knowledge seduction history end radical irrational nihilism metaphysics God pataphysics Baudrillard is radically exclusive through the arbitrary preference of one over the other concept his ideas it is possible to conclude that these dualistic antagonisms are also paradoxically compatible in his system this compatibility is very close to the irrational mysticism of this thinker This book is a clear and lucid presentation of this unique brand of postmodernism to English speaking scholarship

Beyond Foundationalism Stanley James Grenz, John R. Franke, 2001 What role does scripture play in the task of the church What value do past theological constructs offer today How does culture affect theological reflection In this book the authors move past the Enlightenment foundational approach to offer a methodology for doing theology in a postmodern age Writing for readers of all denominations they propose a new theological method that uses three sources the Spirit speaking authoritatively through the biblical text tradition providing a historical interpretative framework and culture as the context for constructive theological reflection This method they argue fosters a Christian theology that acknowledges the whole of God Father Son and Spirit takes full account of the experience of the faith community and is future oriented Evangelical Studies Bulletin, 1998

The Challenge of Postmodernism David S. Dockery, 2001-06 Learn how to reach a new generation in a rapidly changing world with the unchanging gospel

Spirituality with Clothes On Gareth Brandt, 2015-01-05 There is no such thing as a naked spirituality Our spirituality is always shaped by the clothes of our experience The quest of Spirituality with Clothes On is to acknowledge that we do wear clothes and by examining them we begin to understand ourselves and accept others who are wearing different outfits We are what we wear we cannot separate ourselves from our gender personality developmental stage family historical background culture or the difficult experiences of our lives We need to acknowledge all these things reflect on them and sometimes even embrace them in order to truly become ourselves

Hoodoo, Voodoo, and Conjure Jeffrey E. Anderson, 2008-10-30 Hoodoo voodoo and conjure are part of a mysterious world of magic that has long captured the popular imagination This book is a convenient introduction to the subject for students and general readers An opening chapter defines and classifies these magical beliefs and practices This is followed by a wide range of examples and texts illustrating the richness of this spiritual tradition The volume additionally discusses the presence of hoodoo voodoo and conjure in popular culture whether in literary works or in such films as The Skeleton Key and it overviews the scholarly treatment of the topic The volume closes with a glossary and bibliography Alister E. McGrath and Evangelical Theology Sung Wook Chung, 2003 Alister McGrath is one of the premier evangelical theologians of our day In this book leading evangelical scholars including Gabriel Fackre John Frame William Abraham Gerald Bray and Clark Pinnock use McGrath's work as a lens through which to offer a contemporary assessment of evangelical theology The volume sets McGrath in context and argues that a dynamic brand of evangelical theology such as what his thinking represents is necessary for the evangelical wing of the church to be semper reformanda always reforming Chapters focus on the essence identity strengths weaknesses and future of evangelical theology offering a snapshot of a movement in transition The Evangelical Moment Kenneth J. Collins, 2005 Offers a new interpretation of the evangelical story and articulates an ecumenical vision for evangelism Chemchemi, 2002
