Postwar Modernity In Switzerland:

Nachkriegsmoderne Schweiz / Post-War Modernity in Switzerland Walter Zschokke, Michael Hanak, 2001. Beträger Uli Huber. Modernism and the Professional Architecture Journal Torsten Schmiedeknecht, Andrew Peckham, 2018-06-27. The production of this book stems from two of the editors' longstanding research interests: the representation of architecture in print media and the complex identity of the second phase of modernism in architecture given the role it played in postwar reconstruction in Europe. While the history of postwar reconstruction has been increasingly well covered for most European countries, research investigating postwar architectural magazines and journals across Europe, their role in the discourse and production of the built environment and particularly their interrelationship and differing conceptions of postwar architecture, is relatively undeveloped. Modernism and the Professional Architecture Journal sounds out this territory in a new collection of essays concerning the second phase of the reception and assimilation of modernism in architecture as it was represented in professional architecture journals during the period of postwar reconstruction 1945-1968. Professional architecture journals are often seen as conduits of established facts and knowledge. The role mainstream publications play, however, in establishing movements, trends or debates tends to be undervalued. In the context of the complex undertaking of postwar reconstruction, the shortage of resources, political uncertainty and the biographical complexities of individual architects, the chapters on key European architecture journals collected here reveal how modernist architecture and its discourse was perceived and disseminated in different European countries. Themes in Modern European History Since 1945 Rosemary Wakeman, 2003. Twelve chapters consider the key political, cultural and economic changes of post-1945 Europe. Photography, Reconstruction and the Cultural History of the Postwar European City Tom Allsop, 2020-11-16. Examining imagery of urban space in Britain, France and West Germany up to the early 1960s, this book reveals how photography shaped individual architectural projects and national rebuilding efforts alike. Exploring the impact of urban photography at a pivotal moment in contemporary European architecture and culture, this book addresses case studies spanning the destruction of the war to the modernizing reconfiguration of city spaces, including ruin photobooks about bombed cities, architectural photography of housing projects and imagery of urban life from popular photomagazines as well as internationally renowned projects like UNESCO's Paris Headquarters, Coventry Cathedral and Berlin's Gendarmenkirche. This book reveals that the ways of seeing shaped in the postwar years by urban photography were a vital aspect of not only discourses on the postwar city but also debates central to popular culture, from commemoration and modernization to democratization and Europeanization. This book will be a fascinating read for researchers in the fields of photography and visual studies, architectural and urban history and cultural memory and contemporary European history. Arts, rites and myths of modern Switzerland Pietro Bellasi, 2008. Enigma Helvetia indaga il rapporto complesso che dalla fine dell'Ottocento ai giorni nostri intercorre tra la produzione artistica, la storia, la cultura e l'immaginario del singolare.

laboratorio che la Svizzera Nel secolo appena trascorso si sono susseguiti profondi cambiamenti sociopolitici al cospetto dei quali il paese ha profilato la propria identità e la propria posizione internazionale condizionando inevitabilmente per reazione o identificazione rottura o assimilazione anche le espressioni di creatività La mostra documentata nel catalogo propone un'esplorazione avventurosa curiosa e persino divertente dentro l'enigma elvetico affiancando alle straordinarie opere d'arte provenienti dai più importanti musei svizzeri immagini e oggetti del quotidiano delle tradizioni e della produzione industriale svizzera Il volume edito in ed. bilingue italiano-inglese riporta al suo interno alcuni testi in tedesco francese e romancio

Imagining the Tropics is a history of the development of tourism in the Caribbean from the 1910s through the 1970s that focuses on the ways women's labors of hospitality writing and advocacy built the industry and its ubiquitous imagery of tropical island relaxation escape and romance By examining a range of sources engaging an array of women protagonists and looking broadly across multiple Caribbean island states including Jamaica Cuba the Bahamas Barbados the Dominican Republic Haiti Puerto Rico Trinidad and Tobago and the U.S. and British Virgin Islands it seeks to understand how the region came to be sold as a romantic escape from the troubles of the modern world By putting women at the center of Caribbean tourism history as both its ambassadors and objects of desire it seeks to explain some of the complicated contradictions that plague the business of pleasure but also to point toward ways of building alternative models to its present and past extractive realities Conflicted Identities Alexandra Staub, 2015-10-23 Nation states have long used representational architecture to create symbolic identities for public consumption both at home and abroad Government buildings major ensembles and urban plans have a visibility that lends them authority while their repeated portrayals in the media cement their image as icons of a shared national character Existing in tandem with this official self however is a second often divergent identity represented by the vast realm of domestic space defined largely by those who occupy it as well as those with a vested interest in its cultural meaning Using both historical inquiry and visual spatial and film analysis this book explores the interaction of these two identities and its effect on political control class status and gender roles Conflicted Identities examines the politicization of both public and domestic space especially in societies undergoing rapid cultural transformation through political social or economic expansion or restructuring when cultural identity is being rapidly modernized shifted or realigned to conform to new demands Using specific examples from a variety of national contexts the book examines how vernacular housing legislation marketing and media influence a large but often underexposed domestic culture that runs parallel to a more publicly represented one As a case in point the book examines West Germany from the end of World War II to the early 1970s to probe more deeply into the mechanisms of such cultural dichotomy On a national level post-war West Germany demonstratively rejected Nazi era values by rebuilding cities based on interwar modernist tenets while choosing a decidedly modern and transparent architecture for high visibility national projects In the domestic realm government media and everyday citizens countered this turn to state sponsored modernism by embracing traditional architectural aesthetics and housing that encouraged patriarchal family structures Written for readers interested in cultural theory history and the politics of space as well as those engaged with architecture and the built environment Conflicted Identities provides an engaging new perspective on power and identity as they relate to architectural settings Ethnographies of Modernity Anne Kirstin McKnight, 2001 Mid-Century Vienna Tom Koch, 2021-09-09 Weit entfernt von Barock und Jugendstil wird eine f r das Wiener Stadtbild pr gende Zeitepoche bislang wenig beachtet Die 1950er und 1960er Jahre Dabei haben die optimistischen Jahre des Wirtschaftswunders weitreichende Spuren in der Architektur im Des Construction Matters Stefan Holzer, Silke Langenberg, Clemens Knobling, Orkun Kasap, 2025-03-04 Construction History Construction Heritage Recent Construction Historiography Industrialization Engineering Sciences Building Materials Building Actors Construction History is still a fairly new and small but quickly evolving field The current trends in Construction History are well reflected in the papers of the present conference Construction History has strong roots in the historiography of the 19th century and the evolution of industrialization but the focus of our research field has meanwhile shifted notably to include more recent and also more distant histories as well This is reflected in these conference proceedings where 65 out of 148 contributed papers deal with the built heritage or building actors of the 20th or 21st century The conference also mirrors the wide spectrum of documentary and analytical approaches comprised within the discipline of Construction History Papers dealing with the technical and functional analysis of specific buildings or building types are complemented by other studies focusing on the lives and formation of building actors from laborers to architects and engineers from economical aspects to social and political implications on legal aspects and the strong ties between the history of construction and the history of engineering sciences The conference integrates perfectly into the daily work at the Institute for Preservation and Construction History at ETH Zurich Its two chairs the Chair for Building Archaeology and Construction History and the Chair for Construction Heritage and Preservation endeavor to cover the entire field and to bridge the gaps between the different approaches methodologies and disciplines between various centuries as well as technologies learning together and from each other The proceedings of 8ICCH give a representative picture of the state of the art in the field and will serve as a reference point for future studies Politics and Society in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland , 1988 British bulletin of commerce, Post-war trading edition , 1945 Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Art and Architecture Division, 1980 Early Modernism John Mendenhall, 1997 Taking a cue from Gustav Klimt and his artistic movement the graphic designers of Austria and Switzerland in the 20s 30s and 40 s forged a new aesthetic to replace the fussy old fashioned Art Nouveau style popular at the turn of the century What evolved was a dramatic streamlined Modern style that achieved its full bloom in these two countries then went on to influence the world John Mendenhall has gathered more than 600 Swiss and Austrian trademarks from this period that are as striking today as when they were first created

From the carefree exuberance of the 20s to the industrial ethic of the 30s and 40s these trademarks reflect the moods and successes of European society and commerce and offer a refreshing glimpse back to a classic design era Early Modernism is a source of inspiration for designers commercial artists and anyone with an eye for style Most beautiful Swiss books 2008 Laurenz Brunner,2009 The theme of this year s catalogue is the present since it forms the second in the trilogy Past Present Future planned and designed by Laurenz Brunner and Tan W chli P 10 The Cornell Journal of Architecture ,1990
