Transformations in Criminal Jurisdiction Micheál Ó Floinn, Lindsay Farmer, Julia Hörnle, David Ormerod KC, 2023-08-24 Can traditional approaches to criminal jurisdiction adapt to the new global reality of the digital era In this innovative book leading experts in criminal international and internet law unite to address this fundamental question They consider how jurisdictional regimes are orientated around concepts of territoriality and extraterritoriality how these categories are increasingly blurred in the digital era and how a range of jurisdictional transformations are occurring in the process Part I presents novel doctrinal empirical and theoretical perspectives on criminal jurisdiction exploring how states are shaping and reimagining jurisdictional concepts in the crafting and interpretation of criminal offences and the ramifications of increasing jurisdictional concurrency in state practice Part II focuses on the investigative and enforcement powers of the state to assess how these issues are transforming traditional understandings of jurisdictional rules and boundaries the challenges and opportunities that these present for law enforcement authorities and the sorts of constraints and safeguards that may be necessary as a result The picture that emerges is a world of jurisdictional rules in a state of flux which demands the diversity of legal perspectives presented in this book for documenting rationalising and moving beyond the transformations that are taking shape in modern statecraft Studying Youth, Media and Gender in Post-Liberalisation India Nadja-Christina Schneider, Fritzi-Marie Titzmann, 2014-11-21 This volume aims to look both at as well as beyond the Delhi Gang Rape through the lens of Indian Media Studies The editors consider it a critical event or rather critical media event that needs to be contextualized within a rapidly changing diversifying and globalizing Indian society which is as much confronted with new ruptures asymmetries and inequalities as it may still be shaped by the old established structures of a patriarchal social order But the volume also looks beyond the Delhi Gang Rape and introduces other related thematic areas of an emerging research field which links Youth Media and Gender Studies United States of America Congressional Record, Proceedings and Debates of the 113th Congress Second Session Volume 160 - Part 4, Say Hello Carly Findlay, 2019-02-01 A forthright honest and rousing triumphant memoir from a woman who has to live with a highly visible different appearance due to a rare skin condition Say hello to Carly In fairytales the characters who look different are often cast as the villain or monsters It's only when they shed their unconventional skin that they are seen as good or less frightening There are very few stories where the character that looks different is the hero of the story I've been the hero of my story telling it on my own terms proud about my facial difference and disability not wanting a cure for my rare severe and sometimes confronting skin condition and knowing that I am beautiful even though I don't have beauty privilege This honest outspoken and thought provoking memoir by award winning writer and appearance activist Carly Findlay will challenge all your assumptions and beliefs about what it is like to have a visibly different appearance Carly lives with a rare skin condition

Ichthyosis and what she faces every day and what she has to live with will have you cheering for her and her courage and irrepressible spirit This is both a moving memoir and a proud manifesto on disability and appearance diversity issues Believe the hype by turns frank funny and fearsome Findlay s extraordinary memoir is an early contender for 2019 s best Australian non fiction a powerful and moving invitation to examine the structures of privilege and dehumanisation that we so desperately need address in this country Better Read Than Dead A proud celebration of appearance difference a valuable read Herald Sun Defiant unsettling and thought provoking The Age     A Law Dictionary, Adapted to the Constitution and Laws of the United States of America, and of the Several States of the American Union John Bouvier,1891     The Marriage Process in the United States Sebastian B.
