Education and Society in Hong Kong and Macau Mark Bray, Ramsey Koo, 1999 Hong Kong and Macau have much in common Yet in education for reasons which are analysed in this book they are very different The over arching theme of the book on continuity and change is particularly pertinent following the transition of the two societies to the post colonial era

Comparative Education Patricia K. Kubow, Paul R. Fossum, 2003 Comparative Education invites readers to consider theory in comparative education purposes of schooling educational access and opportunity education accountability and authority teacher professionalism and how globalization is impacting education Taking an issues based approach it addresses current educational concerns both at home and abroad and includes analytic frameworks that foster critical thinking and reinforce a systematic method for examination Biographical sketches add human interest and side by side comparisons explore various countries demographic attributes geophysical and economic realities and socio political factors Because the book focuses on issues instead of countries it reinforces how and why comparative education is relevant for educators in today s global society 2000 Education, Globalization, and Social Change Hugh Lauder,2006 Education is seen as central to economic competitiveness the reduction of poverty and inequality and environmental sustainability The editors have selected key writings that examine the social and economic limits and possibilities of education in addressing these fundamental problems This new reader establishes the field of sociology of education with a particular focus on papers that analyse the nature and extent of globalization in education A general introduction presents the key concepts in the sociology of education and outlines the major theories and debates especially in relation to globalization Each section is accompanied by a part opener explaining and contextualizing the readings within a larger educational and sociological context

Planning & Changing ,2006 Hong Kong's Chinese History Curriculum from 1945 Flora L. F. Kan,2007 This book examines how the aims content teaching learning and assessment of the Chinese history curriculum have evolved since 1945 It describes how Chinese history became an independent subject in secondary schools in Hong Kong despite the political sensitivity of the subject how it consolidated its status during the colonial period and how it has faced threats to its independence since the return of Hong Kong to China in 1997 Prospects ,2000 Bulletin of the Council for Research in Music Education Council for Research in Music Education,2006 Asian Thought & Society ,2000 The Narrow Gate Syndrome Beverly A.
