Combatting Modern Slavery Genevieve LeBaron, 2020-08-04 Over the last decade the world's largest corporations from The Coca Cola Company to Amazon Apple to Unilever have taken up the cause of combatting modern slavery Yet by most measures across many sectors and regions severe labour exploitation continues to soar Corporate social responsibility is not working Why In this landmark book Genevieve LeBaron lifts the lid on a labour governance regime that is severely flawed and limited She takes a close up look at the millions of corporate dollars spent on anti slavery networks NGO partnerships lobbying for new transparency legislation and investment in social auditing and ethical certification schemes to show how such efforts serve to bolster corporate growth and legitimacy as well as government reputations whilst failing to protect the world's most vulnerable workers To eradicate modern slavery and human trafficking in global supply chains a new approach is needed one that confronts corporate power and profits dismantles exploitative business models and regulates the booming private industry of accounting firms social auditors and consultants that has emerged to monitor and enforce labour standards Only worker driven initiatives that uphold fundamental rights can protect workers in the contemporary global economy and make forced labour a thing of the past
