Private Voices Public Lives Women Speak On The Literary Life:

Weibliche Bildungsromane Reinhild Fliethmann, 2002 American Women Writers, 1900-1945 Laurie Champion, 2000-09-30 Women writers have been traditionally excluded from literary canons and not until recently have scholars begun to rediscover or discover for the first time neglected women writers and their works This reference includes alphabetically arranged entries on 58 American women authors who wrote between 1900 and 1945 Each entry is written by an expert contributor and discusses a particular author's biography her major works and themes and the critical response to her writings The entries close with extensive primary and secondary bibliographies and the volume concludes with a list of works for further reading The period surveyed by this reference is rich and diverse Modernism and the Harlem Renaissance two major artistic movements occurred between 1900 and 1945 and the entries included here demonstrate the significant contributions women made to these movements The volume as a whole strives to reflect the diversity of American culture and includes entries for African American Native American Mexican American and Chinese American women It includes well known writers such as Willa Cather and Eudora Welty along with more neglected ones such as Anita Scott Coleman and Sui Sin Far Proceedings of the XVth Congress of the International Comparative Literature Association "Literature as Cultural Memory" : Leiden, 16-22 August 1997: Gendered memories Theo D'haen, 2000 Queer Girls in Class Lori Horvitz, 2011 Lori Horvitz's short stories poetry and creative nonfiction have appeared in a variety of literary journals and anthologies Horvitz the recipient of an M F A in creative writing from Brooklyn College and a Ph D in English from SUNY Albany she has been awarded writing fellowships from Yaddo Ragdale Virginia Center for the Creative Arts Blue Mountain Center Cottages at Hedgebrook and Fundaci n Valparaíso She is Associate Professor of Literature and Language at UNC Asheville where she teaches courses in creative writing literature and women's studies Book Jacket Intimate Reading Janet Mason Ellerby, 2001-06-01 Janet Mason Ellerby offers an analysis of the tragic events which have most influenced her writing and explores the relationship of her own narrative to others like it Updating the Literary West ,1997 Western writers says Thomas J Lyon in his epilogue to Updating the Literary West have grown up with the frontier myth but now find themselves in the early stages of creating a new western myth The editors of the Literary History of the American West TCU Press 1987 hoped that the first volume would begin not conclude their exploration of the West's literary heritage Out of this hope comes Updating the Literary West a comprehensive reference anthology including essays by over one hundred scholars A selected bibliography is included with each piece In the ten years since publication of LHAW western writing has developed a significantly larger presence in the national literary stream A variety of cultural viewpoints have developed along with new tactics for literary study New authors have risen to prominence and the range of subjects has changed and widened Updating the Literary West looks at topics ranging from western classics to cowboys and Cadillacs and considers children's literature ethnicity environmental writing gender issues and other topics in which change has been rapid since publication of

LHAW This volume again affirms the West's literary legitimacy status hard earned by the Western Literary Association and the lasting place of popular western writing as part of the growing and changing literary and American experience An excellent reference for a wide range of readers and an invaluable resource for scholars and libraries Selected list of contributors James Maguire Fred Erisman Susan J Rosowski Gerald Haslam Tom Pilkington A Carl Bredahl Richard Slotkin John G Cawelti Robert F Gish Ann Ronald Mick McAllister

Modernism on Fleet Street Patrick Collier, 2016-12-05 British modernism came of age at a time of great cultural anxiety about the state of journalism The new newspapers with their brief flashy articles striking visuals hyperbolic headlines and sensational news stood at the center of debates about reading in the period seeming to threaten the viability of representative democracy the health and vitality of the language and the very future of literature itself Patrick Collier's study brings an impressive array of archival research to his exploration of modernism's relationship to the newspaper press People who sought to make their way as writers could neither remain neutral on this issue nor abandon journalism which offered an irreplaceable source of income and self advertisement Collier discusses five modern writers T S Eliot James Joyce Virginia Woolf Rebecca West and Rose Macaulay showing how their work takes part in contemporary debates about journalism and examining the role journalism played in establishing their careers In doing so he uncovers tensions and contradictions inherent in the identity of the serious artist who relied on the ephemeral forms of journalism for money and reputation

Private Voices, Public Lives Nancy Owen Nelson, 1995 Interweaving the personal private voice with scholarly public intent Nelson and the other contributors argue for a more interactive and cooperative approach to the teaching reading critiquing and writing of literature These essays are a direct result of the desire by many women within the academic community to break free of what has been called the masculine or adversary mode of literary criticism Private Voices Public Lives is of critical importance to readers teachers reviewers and critics The essays incorporate ideas on current issues of autobiography memoir women's voice reader response diversity life writing and gender
