Self-taught & Outsider Art Anthony Petullo, 2001 This spectacular volume reproduces in full color some 150 pieces from the Anthony Petullo Collection an extraordinary assemblage of paintings and drawings produced by individuals working outside the perimeter of conventional art training and traditions Some of the pieces are fanciful even whimsical Others are haunting in their unembellished depiction of vulnerability and terror Some are spare others are crowded with figures Some exhibit a childlike simplicity others are almost sculpted in their precision and clarity The thirty six European and North American artists represented in Self Taught and Outsider Art include a hospital janitor a factory worker concentration camp survivors a truck driver a guard at the Tate Gallery a self proclaimed fortuneteller and healer and a female impersonator and Hollywood screenwriter Their canvases include paper wood long strips of calico cloth and cardboard One artist paints with both hands simultaneously another finds it difficult to paint except amid the chaos of his family Many began painting quite late in life others had early dreams of pursuing art that were deferred by economic and family circumstances Some have been institutionalized or incarcerated others have struggled with terrible poverty and personal loss Perhaps more than the work of conventionally trained artists pieces by outsider or self taught artists are entwined with the identities of their creators In support of that connection Self Taught and Outsider Art presents the artworks in conjunction with portraits usually photographs of the artists and brief biographical sketches In some cases a friend or patron provides an anecdote about the artist Taken together these offer an intimate glimpse of the process by which art emerges from experience

Surrealism and Its Others Katharine Conley, Pierre Taminiaux, 2006-01-01 This issue of Yale French Studies on Surrealism and Its Othersexamines the works and theories of writers artists and thinkers who positioned themselves and their productions in dialogue with Breton s surrealism Although surrealism always sought to distinguish itself from other movements and ideologies its members often celebrated their commonality with many others outside of the official group with whom they shared their passions Marxists visual artists filmmakers psychiatrists and ethnographers Each of the writers artists and thinkers examined here were either temporarily associated with surrealism or were influenced by its collective and open spirit even if in a primarily opposing or questioning role In some cases this outside perspective came from as close as Belgium and other European countries In other cases it came from farther away from North Africa or North America which reveals surrealism s engagement with non European formerly colonized cultures reflects its staunchly anti colonial stance and confirms the movement as something more than an aesthetic phenomenon Along with its aesthetic mission surrealism was also and perhaps more importantly a powerful political and social reality This issue examines works by artists writers and theorists who were all in their own ways located outside of yet close to surrealism and who provide us with a new perspective on this avant garde and modernist movement
