Economic Transformation in Eastern Europe, 1993 Gelegenheit und Entscheidung Helmut Wiesenenthal, 2013-07-01 Entgegen aller Skepsis welche die Transformationsforschung der ersten Jahre dominierte wurde das Jahrhundertprojekt eines kompletten Systemwechsels in einer Vielzahl von Fällen erfolgreich bewältigt Infolgedessen ist eine Revision jener Teile des sozialwissenschaftlichen Wissens erforderlich in denen die Möglichkeit umfassender Gesellschaftsreformen bestritten wurde Mittels avancierter quantitativer und qualitativer Methoden der vergleichenden Forschung werden die politischen Entscheidungen aufgedeckt denen positive Resultate geschuldet sind Die kompakten Studien zur politischen und ökonomischen Transformation machen aber auch die fehlerhaften Annahmen kenntlich welche der These von der generellen Unmöglichkeit holistischer Reformen zugrunde liegen Foreign Investment in Central & Eastern Europe Vratislav Pěchota, 1992 The American Bibliography of Slavic and East European Studies Patt Leonard, Rebecca Routh, 2020-02-27 This bibliography first published in 1957 provides citations to North American academic literature on Europe Central Europe the Balkans the Baltic States and the former Soviet Union Organised by discipline it covers the arts humanities social sciences life sciences and technology

The Political Economy of Transition in Central and Eastern Europe Jens Bastian, 2019-06-04 First published in 1998 this volume contributes to the debate after the fall of the Soviet Union on the transition of Eastern European former Soviet countries to a market economy The transition was an enterprise as daring in practice and historically unprecedented as it is an analytical laboratory subject to constant reflection The first two chapters address foreign direct investment in Central and Eastern European countries The rebuilding of social insurance systems is then addressed with a focus on state pension schemes The subsequent two chapters examine the political and demographic features of transition countries highlighting media reform as a key aspect for the consolidation of a democratic law based market economy and society Focus then turns to Poland the country which is considered to display the most progress in the political economy of transition Finally the controversial issue of the electoral successes of former Communist parties in Central and Eastern Europe is discussed

Privatization and FDI in Central and Eastern Europe Kalman Kalotay, 2006 Since economic transition started a close relationship has developed between privatization and foreign direct investment It has nevertheless been an unequal relationship while privatization has undoubtedly dominated foreign direct investment inflows in most Central and Eastern European countries foreign direct investment has not been the dominant form of privatization although according to the findings of a number of previous studies and a recent survey carried out by UNCTAD foreign direct investment seems to have made a positive contribution to the improvement of efficiency and corporate governance in the framework of economic transition These findings are particularly important in the light of the expectations that in the near future privatization remains the mainstay for an important part of the potential investment inflows of several but not all Central and Eastern European countries At the end of the 1990s policy makers in the region seem to recognize that not only is privatization important but also the way it is carried out matters as restructuring and the establishment of strong corporate governance may be more important than the disposal of former State owned assets A strong presence of foreign owned firms allows a fast restructuring on condition that at the same time host Governments follow sound efficiency oriented and internationally competitive economic policies The impact of privatization related foreign direct investment depends largely on the follow up investments and on the restructuring efforts of the new owner The role of government policies in the future can be seen in maximizing the positive effects and stimulating spillovers to the rest of the economy

McCormick, Jonathan Unger, 2017-07-05 Nine specialists from four continents address the following questions is China moving toward the type of developmental state and sophisticated economic powerhouse associated with the East Asian miracle does China's Leninist political system and the heritage of a state run heavy industrial sector present too great a burden for successful transformation and what is the likelihood that China's party state will ultimately collapse in a fashion similar to the Leninist governments of Europe The findings and analyses should prove interesting to followers of China East Asia as a whole and the European postcommunist transition

Hopps, Demetrius S. Iatridis, 1998-08-27 Central and Eastern European countries are facing the transition from central to market systems with different strategies and capacities As the task of societal transformation is without precedent in world history the massive economic restructuring has revealed the need for distributive justice and general well being As the editors and contributors to this volume point out the monolithic preoccupation with economic restructuring in a market economics framework is implemented at the expense of social protection and security In contrast to traditional views of privatization as only an economic or managerial phenomenon this collection approaches privatization as a broader integrated process of societal transformation Privatization as defined here consists of integrated processes of societal restructuring that affect sociopolitical economic and ideological constructs as well as human and physical capital development transformation of family structures market stabilization and organization of social care Public policymakers as well as scholars and researchers of contemporary Eastern Europe will find this collection of great interest and an important challenge to the economic models of privatization which undervalue social costs
