Privatization And The Rebirth Of Capital Markets In Hungary:

Privatization and the Rebirth of Capital Markets in Hungary C. Edward Fletcher, 1995 The Republic of Hungary has emerged as the leader in capital market reforms among former Soviet Bloc countries Since 1982 the country has made significant strides towards the privatization of its economy and the implementation of market regulations serving as a model for other formerly socialist countries The progress and mistakes of the Hungarian movement towards capitalism are studied here as a model for reforms in other countries in Eastern Europe Particular emphasis is placed on the legal and regulatory structures that have been established to facilitate the transition Banking reforms development of the Budapest Stock Exchange stabilization of the forint and many other interrelated reforms that are an integral part of Hungary's capital market infrastructure are also examined Privatisierung und öffentliche Finanzen Dirck Süß, 2016-09-12 Keine ausführliche Beschreibung für Privatisierung und öffentliche Finanzen verfügbar Financial Market Restructuring in Selected Central European Countries Karen S. Vorst, Willadee Wehmeyer, 2018-12-18 Published in 1998 this book provides detailed information on the financial markets in selected Central European transitioning economies The independent countries selected for study in the text are Poland Hungary the Czech Republic and the Slovak Republic The former East Germany is also included due to its proximity to the above countries and its unique experience in the transition process Each country's section of the book contains articles written by professionals in the selected country These individuals are economists central bankers and or analysts who have first hand knowledge of the financial system Each section details the development in the banking sector plus the role of the central bank and the government in guiding the economy toward the market system discusses the emerging capital markets and the ongoing process of privatization and provides an update of the economic progress toward a market system that has been achieved since 1989 Privatisation and Development Claude V.

Chang, 2017-11-28 The book interrogates privatisation in terms of its effectiveness vis vis its stated goals and more fundamentally in terms of its success in delivering economic development It investigates why privatisation was successful in the UK and other OECD countries and why it has not met with equal success in developing countries In this regard it further examines the policy prescriptions of the IMF and World Bank in relation to the conceptualised benefits and theoretical assumptions underlying these supposed benefits The author assesses the extent to which culture and customs indeed the mode of production stand in determinate relationship to the goals techniques and outcome of the process Furthermore Chang examines the degree to which socioeconomic and moral consequences of privatisation have been ignored in pursuit of the ideological imperative implicit in the Washington Consensus Hence the book contributes to the reflective thought that must necessarily be part of theory validation and provides the basis for a balanced and empirically valid theory of privatisation Policy Reform and the Development of Democracy in Eastern Europe Chris Hasselmann, 2017-11-30

Integrating the international pressures emanating from the Washington Consensus with an analysis of domestic interest representation this book explores the political consequences of privatization and the progress of democracy in Eastern Europe Chris Hasselmann investigates whether the issue of pension reform offers a natural controlled experiment with which to explore both issues throughout the region and the former Soviet Union The volume will prove of value to those with an interest in public policy and governance issues the politics of Eastern Europe and political theory more generally
