Prizzis Money:

Prizzi's Family Richard Condon, 2016-01-05 In this prequel to Prizzi's Honor the mafia hitman finds himself in more trouble than even he can handle earthy quirky fast moving entertainment Kirkus Reviews starred review Charley Partanna sits in his office quietly rigging an election As the chief executioner for the Prizzi family he has taken time out of his busy schedule of cold blooded murder to ensure that New York reelects its mayor and that dirty money continues to flow his way When he isn't killing snitches or stealing votes Partanna goes to night school but tonight his homework will have to wait The Prizzis are going to war For Partanna a mob war is nothing but an inconvenience The streetwise underboss can make a hit completely undetected But when he makes the mistake of falling in love with the don's granddaughter Partanna will see just what kind of trouble the Prizzi family can cause Prizzi's Family is the 2nd book in the Prizzi series but you may enjoy reading the series in any order

Prizzi's Honor Richard Condon, 2021-06-17 A darkly funny novel of mobsters murder and marriage The surprise ending will knock your reading glasses off The New York Times Charley Partanna works as a hitman for the Prizzis New York's most dangerous crime family When he meets Irene Walker an LA based tax consultant it's pretty much love at first sight But Irene also moonlights as a hit woman and had a hand in a big money heist in Vegas Now Charley has been told that she's got to go Faced with divided loyalties he must make a choice between the only family he's ever known and the woman he loves A New York Times Notable Book and made into an award winning film Prizzi's Honor is a dark rollicking read from an old pro at mixing satire with suspense The New York Times

John Huston as Adaptor Douglas McFarland, Wesley King, 2017-01-27 Argues that understanding Huston's film adaptations of literary works is essential to understanding his oeuvre as a filmmaker John Huston as Adaptor makes the case that adaptation is the salient element in Huston's identity as a filmmaker and that his early and deep attraction to the experience of reading informed his approach to film adaptation Thirty four of Huston's thirty seven films were adaptations of literary texts and they stand as serious interpretations of literary works that could only be made by an astute reader of literature Indeed Huston asserted that a film director should be above all else a reader and that reading itself should be the intellectual and emotional basis for filmmaking The seventeen essays in this volume not only address Huston as an adaptor but also offer an approach to adaptation studies that has been largely overlooked How an adaptor reads the works to which he is drawn and how his literary interpretations can be brought to the screen without relegating film to a subservient role are some of the issues addressed by the contributors An introductory chapter identifies Huston as the quintessential Hollywood adaptor and argues that his skill at adaptation is the mark of his authorial signature The chapters that follow focus on fifteen of Huston's most important films including The Maltese Falcon 1941 The Treasure of the Sierra Madre 1948 The African Queen 1951 The Night of the Iguana 1964 Under the Volcano 1984 and The Dead 1987 and are divided into three areas aesthetics and textuality history and social context and theory and psychoanalysis By offering a more comprehensive account of the centrality of adaptation to Huston's films John Huston as Adaptor offers a greater understanding of Huston as a filmmaker
