

PROBATION Principles and Practices AND PAROLE

Second Printing

REED K. CLEGG, *Assistant Professor of Criminology,
Fresno State College Fresno, California*

No single book could possibly contain the wealth of information and the storehouse of experience which are the heritage of a century of probation and parole administration. Professor Clegg does not attempt the impossible. He does provide a valuable over-all view of the probation-parole aspect of the correctional field . . .

- . To record the basic principles and philosophies of probation and parole
- . To list the tools and techniques which are most helpful to the probation and parole officer
- . To point out to the student areas in which there are existing gaps between theory and practice
