Problem Of Freedom Race Labor And Politics In Jamaica And Britain 1832 1938 Hb:

The Problem of Freedom Thomas C. Holt, 1992 The Jamaican slave revolt of 1831-32 precipitated the abolition of slavery throughout the British colonial empire A century later the labor rebellion of 1938 marked the beginning of that empire's end Each event embraced a particular form of emancipation at issue in the first revolt was the freedom of the individual slave at issue in the second was the freedom of the society itself The century that separated these watersheds in British colonial history was one of extraordinary transformations in British ideology in economic and social policy and in the lives of Jamaican freed people and their descendants In The Problem of Freedom Thomas C Holt offers an intriguing analysis of this period exploring the meaning and reality of freedom in the context of slave emancipation in Jamaica the largest West Indian colony of the nineteenth century's major world power

Masters, Servants, and Magistrates in Britain and the Empire, 1562-1955 Douglas Hay, Paul Craven, 2005-10-12 Master and servant acts the cornerstone of English employment law for more than four hundred years gave largely unsupervised inferior magistrates wide discretion over employment relations including the power to whip fine and imprison men women and children for breach of private contracts with their employers The English model was adopted modified and reinvented in more than a thousand colonial statutes and ordinances regulating the recruitment retention and discipline of workers in shops mines and factories on farms in forests and on plantations and at sea This collection presents the first integrated comparative account of employment law its enforcement and its importance throughout the British Empire Sweeping in its geographic and temporal scope this volume tests the relationship between enacted law and enforced law in varied settings with different social and racial structures different economies and different constitutional relationships to Britain Investigations of the enforcement of master and servant law in England the British Caribbean India Africa Hong Kong Canada Australia and colonial America shed new light on the nature of law and legal institutions the role of inferior courts in compelling performance and the definition of free labor within a multiracial empire Contributors David M Anderson St Antony's College Oxford Michael Anderson London School of Economics Jerry Bannister Dalhousie University Nova Scotia M K Banton National Archives of the United Kingdom London Martin Chanock La Trobe University Australia Paul Craven York University Juanita De Barros McMaster University Christopher Frank University of Manitoba Douglas Hay York University Prabhu P Mohapatra Delhi University India Christopher Munn University of Hong Kong Michael Quinlan University of New South Wales Richard Rathbone University of Wales Aberystwyth Christopher Tomlins American Bar Foundation Chicago Mary Turner London University

X—The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Thought Nahum Dimitri Chandler, 2013-12-15 X The Problem of the Negro as a Problem for Thought offers an original account of matters African American and by implication the African diaspora in general as an object of discourse and knowledge It likewise challenges the conception of analogous objects of study across dominant ethnological disciplines e.g. anthropology history and sociology and the various forms of cultural ethnic and postcolonial studies With special reference to the work of W E B Du Bois Chandler shows how a concern with the Negro is central to the social and historical problematization that underwrote twentieth century explorations of what it means to exist as an historical entity referring to their antecedents in eighteenth century thought and forward into their ongoing itinerary in the twenty first century For Du Bois the problem of the color line coincided with the inception of a supposedly modern horizon The very idea of the human and its avatars the idea of race and the idea of culture emerged together with the violent hierarchical inscription of the so called African or Negro into a horizon of commonness beyond all natal premises a horizon that we can still situate with the term global In ongoing struggles with the idea of historical sovereignty we can see the working out of then new concatenations of social and historical forms of difference as both projects of categorical differentiation and the irruption of originary revisions of ways of being In a word the world is no longer and has never been one The world if there is such from the inception of something like the Negro as a problem for thought could never be only one The problem of the Negro in America is thus an exemplary instance of modern historicity in its most fundamental sense It renders legible for critical practice the radical order of an ineluctable and irreversible complication at the heart of being its appearance as both life and history as the very mark of our epoch Journal of the Civil War Era William A.

Blair,2012-09-01 The Journal of the Civil War Era Volume 2 Number 3 September 2012 TABLE OF CONTENTS Articles Robert Fortenbaugh Memorial Lecture Joan Waugh I Only Knew What Was in My Mind Ulysses S Grant and the Meaning of Appomattox Patrick Kelly The North American Crisis of the 1860s Carole Emberton Only Murder Makes Men Reconsidering the Black Military Experience Caroline E Janney I Yield to No Man an Iota of My Convictions Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park and the Limits of Reconciliation Book Reviews Books Received Review Essay David S Reynolds Reading the Sesquicentennial New Directions in the Popular History of the Civil War Notes on Contributors The Journal of the Civil War Era takes advantage of the flowering of research on the many issues raised by the sectional crisis war Reconstruction and memory of the conflict while bringing fresh understanding to the struggles that defined the period and by extension the course of American history in the nineteenth century The Problem of Freedom Thomas C.. Holt,1992

Contesting Freedom Gad Heuman,David Vincent Trotman,2005 This collection of studies is concerned with exploring some of the many issues faced by Caribbean Societies as those societies grappled with the problems generated by the demise of slavery The experiences of the post slavery period make the Caribbean less of a homogenous area of study then the slave period when the commonalities were more obvious and compelling The circumstances in which the slave systems were dismantled and the differences in the timing of the end of slavery combine with other factors to make the Caribbean an area of diverse post emancipation experiences despite some obvious areas of real commonality The present volume seeks to contribute to the understanding of the post emancipation period by taking as its jumping off point the debate over continuity and change and has as its central concerns the issues of conflict control and resistance The issues covered by the contributors include law and the penal system riots and social uprising labour control religion marriage and other areas of cultural interest This collection is a result of a fruitful collaboration between the Centre for Caribbean Studies at the University of Warwick and the UNESCO York University Nigerian Hinterland Project funded by the Canadian Social Sciences and Research Council International Books in Print, 1995 Barbara Hopkinson,[Anonymus AC01401231],1995

Freedom's Children Colin A. Palmer,2014 Freedom s Children The 1938 Labor Rebellion and the Birth of Modern Jamaica Between Black and White Gad J. Heuman,1981-05-29 The complex story of the rise and fall of the colored class in Jamaican politics is examined in this important contribution to the history of the Caribbean
