Fundamental Theology Matthew L. Becker, 2024-01-25 Encyclopedic in scope this book offers wide ranging coverage of the foundational teachings and practices within the mainstream of the classical Christian tradition It begins with their roots in the Scriptures and also branches out into Eastern and Western Christianity ancient medieval and modern to the present day Part I provides an overview of some of these routes then presents an historical survey of Christianity's major traditions Part II unpacks some of the character of that revelation focusing particularly on epistemological and procedural questions Finally Part III looks at Christian theology in a university setting the possibility and shape of theology as a university discipline its major subfields and its relations with humanities and the sciences respectively Fundamental Theology A Protestant Perspective 2nd edition includes a wide range of pedagogical features each chapter begins with an outline thesis statement highlighted in bold charts and graphs relevant headings and subheadings employed throughout the book keywords provides a survey of pertinent reference literature questions for review and discussion annotated suggestions for further reading

Dictionary of Fundamental Theology René Latourelle, Rino Fisichella, 1994 Because of the massive changes in society and the church over the last 50 years traditional apologetics has changed and a new discipline with its own specific character object and method has been born Now in 221 authoritative articles this comprehensive dictionary provides a complete A Z reference to this new theology Theology and the Experience of God Dale M. Schlitt, 2000 Theology and the Experience of God is an implicit critical dialogue with Hegel's philosophy of religion and Anglo American experientialist traditions It suggests that the ancient Christian tradition of theology as faith seeking understanding fides quaerens intellectum should be reinterpreted today as the experience of God seeking understanding experientia Dei quaerens intellectum It presents fundamental theology in this light and then reflects on aspects of three specific experiences of God namely the charismatic experience of the Spirit the call of the risen One to a renewed Christian ecumenism and the role of the aging in reminding the Christian community that God is its goal This book continues with further more systematic theological reflections on faith hope and love on the reality of sin and on the experience of the Trinity and ends with a reflection on the reign and realm of God as movement of enriching experience or spirit Hermeneutics as Theological Prolegomena Charles J. Scalise,1994

Grace and Human Freedom in the Theology of Henri Bouillard J. Eileen Scully,2007 This monograph is a pioneering exploration of the theological category of human freedom as the animating centre of the thought of Henri Bouillard SJ a leader of the Ressourcement movement in French Roman Catholic theology in the middle of the 20th century The work also serves as a comprehensive analysis of Bouillard s corpus of writings spanning the years 1940 to 1981 Bouillard s contribution to a much studied movement have been in the shadows of better known colleagues such as Henri de Lubac Dr Scully s research helps to introduce an important theologian to the English speaking world and to situate within the theological and ecclesial controversies prior to the Second Vatican Council the key issues ideas and formulations that were to serve as the basis of Bouillard s theology of Human Freedom Both de Lubac and Karl Rahner as well as Karl Barth recognized Bouillard s original contribution to the renewal of fundamental theology ans well as his vital reanimating of Thomism in our time A fine study an important addition to any academic library or research collection of contemporary Theology Professor Andrew Woznicki SC STD University of San Francisco

Matthias Scheeben on Faith John Courtney Murray,1987 This volume comprises a reproduction of Murray s dissertation completed in 1937 at the Gregorian University in Rome The dissertation is essentially a study of the analysis of faith in the writings of Matthias Joseph Scheeben 1835 1888 one of the most original Catholic theologians of the 19th century A 51 page introduction by Hughson gives a historical background insights into Scheeben s thought and points of reference for Murray s later work in social ethics
