Inter-Regional Debt Management Conference, 2001 Overcoming Developing Country Debt Crises Barry Herman, José Antonio Ocampo, Shari Spiegel, 2010-04 The book looks at historical sovereign debt crises in developing and transition economies and concludes that these occurrences have been economic and social catastrophes and are likely to happen again in the future due to the boom and bust nature of economic cycles which can wreak havoc in liberalized financial environments Programming Languages and Systems in Computational Economics and Finance Soren Bo Nielsen, 2012-12-06 The developments within the computationally and numerically oriented areas of Operations Research Finance Statistics and Economics have been significant over the past few decades Each area has been developing its own computer systems and languages that suit its needs but there is relatively little cross fertilization among them yet This volume contains a collection of papers that each highlights a particular system language model or paradigm from one of the computational disciplines aimed at researchers and practitioners from the other fields The 15 papers cover a number of relevant topics Models and Modelling in Operations Research and Economics novel High level and Object Oriented approaches to programming through advanced uses of Maple and MATLAB and applications and solution of Differential Equations in Finance It is hoped that the material in this volume will whet the reader's appetite for discovering and exploring new approaches to old problems and in the longer run facilitate cross fertilization among the fields We would like to thank the contributing authors the reviewers the publisher and last but not least Jesper Saxtorph Anders Nielsen and Thomas Stidsen for invaluable technical assistance Proceedings of the Second Inter-regional Debt Management Conference United Nations Conference on Trade and Development, 2001 This document is a compilation of presentations made by debt management experts and professionals during UNCTAD's Second Inter regional Debt Management Conference held in Geneva in April 2000 The conference addressed recent trends in the area of debt management and in particular it aimed at highlighting the consequences recent developments have had and will have in the future for individual national debt offices and for the profession of debt management The Emerging of a Multilateral Forum for Debt Restructuring Enrique Cosio-Pascal, 2008 This paper describes the evolution of intergovernmental relationships on debt rescheduling It starts describing some experiences that aroused in the 18th Century and which negotiations were carried out in many occasions with the help of gunboat diplomacy The settlement of liabilities that were created at the aftermath of the two 20th Century World Wars which were at least for some countries not exactly debt but war reparations gave some insights in how to deal with these problems allowing the debtor country to find its own path to get out of the debt overhang The settlement of these foreign liabilities may give some guidelines for dealing with debt restructuring in more general cases The creation of the Paris Club which is a very civilized way to settle debt defaults compared to gunboat diplomacy is analyzed and described here first its emergency as an ad hoc transitory institution and later its evolution toward its definitive establishment in the international financial system landscape It is also suggested that for a combination of events which included the launch in Evian of the G 8 s so called Evian Approach for the Paris Club as well as the lack of support of some major industrialized countries to the implementation of a Sovereign Debt Restructuring Mechanism SDRM the Paris Club has become the only feasible international intergovernmental debt restructuring mechanism in spite of numerous shortcomings embodied in it On this basis some improvements of the actual mechanism are proposed without precluding the possibility of the implementation of a more equilibrated SDRM in the future Page 1
