Private World Of Congress:

The World's Congress of Religions John Wesley Hanson, 1894 The Yale Law Journal, 1982 A Personal History of Nuclear Medicine Henry N. Wagner, 2007-12-23 Each year at the annual meeting of the Society of Nuclear Medicine Henry Wagner summarizes his view of principal advances in the field. In A Personal History of Nuclear Medicine he brings the same insight to the fifty years he has practiced, preached and breathed nuclear medicine. That same fifty years spans the era in which radioactivity has been harnessed to provide exquisite maps of physiologic function in the living human body. Thus the book brings the perspective of an insider whose own contributions have been particularly influential. A leader of a premier program in education and research, founding member of the American Board of Nuclear Medicine, proponent of international cooperation and the World Congress and much more. Because of Henry's positions and desire to meet and know colleagues throughout the world, he and his wife Anne are most gracious hosts and visitors. This autobiography is also a story of the major figures who grew the field of nuclear medicine and made the discipline into a coherent one. The book also reflects Henry's personality, his candor and an unerring way of telling it the way he thinks it is. His punctuated use of aphorisms, some of his own making, his deep understanding of who he is and an innocent delight in many accomplishments. Some years ago I suggested that Henry was a constructive troublemaker, someone who goaded us out of accepted wisdom into new and sometimes outrageous thinking.

Coexisting Contemporary Civilizations Guy Ankerl, 2000 Some important questions are discussed in this book: Are there any civilisations other than the Western one living in our so-called Global Age? Eastern civilisation: Is the concept of East anything more than non-West? Or does there exist in reality a distinct Chinese, Indian, Arabo-Muslim and Western civilisation? Is the construction of large civilisation states such as China and India an unparalleled historical achievement? Do economic ties always eclipse other forms of affiliation such as those formed through kinship or between speech communities? What is the role of the Latin and the Jewish Peoples in our Anglo-American-led Western world? Is English today the global language or merely an international one? Is the Chinese thought pattern closely related to its writing system? Is today's world one of symmetrical interdependence or rather one of hegemony? If the so-called North-South or East-West dialogue fails in constructing a universally accepted world civilisation, then what is the appropriate arrangement for reaching such a consensus within humankind?

The Florists' Exchange, 1892 The Speakers of the U.S. House of Representatives Donald R. Kennon, 1986 Cultures of Eschatology Veronika Wieser, Vincent Eltschinger, Johann Heiss, 2020-07-20 Apokalyptische Vorstellungen von Untergang und Verheerung von letzten Dingen und ersten Wahrheiten von Endgültigem und noch nie Dagewesenem begleiten die europäische Kulturgeschichte seit mehr als 2000 Jahren Die vorliegende Reihe Kulturgeschichte der Apokalypse legt eine heterogene und interdisziplinäre Durchmessung des Endzeitdenkens aus historisch kulturwissenschaftlicher Perspektive vor Sie betont die einzigartigen Verhaftungen apokalyptischer Diskurse in jeweils zeitgenössischen epistemischen medialen und politischen Kontexten und plädiert für den Mut zum Bruch mit homogenen Lesarten linearen Denktraditionen und lediglich formalen Rückführungen auf einen apokalyptischen Ursprung Dabei öffnet sie den Blick in andere religiöse wie geographische Kontexte und leistet zum interdisziplinären Vergleich ein

The World's Work Walter Hines Page, Arthur Wilson Page, 1915 The Hand of God Michael Gauvreau, 2017-10-01 Set against a background of intense religious and cultural change and tensions over the meanings of nationalism and federalism in both Quebec and Canada Michael Gauvreau's The Hand of God traces the emergence of Claude Ryan as a public intellectual This is the first comprehensive biography of Ryan based on his personal papers and extensive writings as a social commentator editorialist and director of the newspaper Le Devoir At a time of Catholic religious fervour and new currents of social analysis Ryan spoke for a postwar generation of young Quebecers assuring his surprising ascension as one of the most influential voices in Canadian liberalism and federalism in the 1960s In rich detail Gauvreau describes Ryan's ideas on religion politics and society which assured his importance both as a major figure seeking the transformation of Roman Catholicism in the 1950s and 1960s and as an advocate of a type of liberalism that was often at odds with Pierre Elliott Trudeau's He presents compelling new material on the breakdown of social and cultural consensus a detailed analysis of Ryan's personal and intellectual dealings with both Trudeau and René Lévesque and a strikingly new interpretation of the motives of the key players in the October Crisis of 1970 A significant rethinking of the relationship between liberalism nationalism and federalism in Quebec in the twentieth century The Hand of God uses biography as a lens to explore and shed new light on questions central to postwar Quebec and Canadian cultural political and intellectual history Flying Magazine ,1959-03
