The Private World of Daphne Du Maurier Martyn Shallcross, 1992 House of Fiction Phyllis Richardson, 2017-07-27

From the gothic fantasies of Walpole's Otranto to post modern takes on the country house by Kazuo Ishiguro and Ian McEwan Phyllis Richardson guides us on a tour through buildings real and imagined to examine how authors' personal experiences helped to shape the homes that have become icons of English literature We encounter Jane Austen drinking too much wine in the lavish ballroom of a Hampshire manor discover how Virginia Woolf's love of Talland House at St Ives is palpable in To the Lighthouse and find Evelyn Waugh remembering Madresfield Court as he plots Charles Ryder's return to Brideshead Drawing on historical sources biographies letters diaries and the novels themselves House of Fiction opens the doors to these celebrated houses while offering candid glimpses of the writers who brought them to life A Successful

Depledge, 2013-08-15 Drawing on a range of texts from the seventeenth century to the present The Female Body in Medicine and Literature explores accounts of motherhood fertility and clinical procedures for what they have to tell us about the development of women's medicine The essays here offer nuanced historical analyses of subjects that have received little critical attention including the relationship between gynecology and psychology and the influence of popular art forms on so called women's science prior to the twenty first century Taken together these essays offer a wealth of insight into the medical treatment of women and will appeal to scholars in gender studies literature and the history of medicine The
