Privatised World:

The Privatised World Arthur Brittan, 2024-10-31 Unemployment and the economic crisis are the brutal facts of life in the everyday world around us For many the only retreat from this is to the privatized world of the suburbs middle class housing estates and high rise developments a separate world in which the individual often feels entrapped and politically impotent In The Privatised World first published in 1978 Arthur Brittan argues that the experience of privatisation in contemporary society is reflected in sociology by the proliferation of social theories which appear to be obsessed with the self and consciousness Carefully avoiding the pitfalls of a merely autobiographical response he analyses the phenomenon and concludes that it is precisely because the privatised world does dominate the consciousness of so many people in Western societies that it is difficult to dismiss the partial and pessimistic theories which so many social theorists have employed to explain their predicament This book will be of interest to students and researchers of sociology and social psychology

Making Public in a Privatized World David A. McDonald, 2016-02-15 How do we provide effective public services in a deeply neoliberal world In the wake of the widespread failure of privatisation efforts societies in the global south are increasingly seeking progressive ways of recreating the public sector With contributors ranging from cutting edge scholars to activists working in health water and energy provision and with case studies covering a broad spectrum of localities and actors Making Public in a Privatized World uncovers the radically different ways in which public services are being reshaped from the grassroots up From communities holding the state accountable for public health in rural Guatemala to waste pickers in India and decentralized solar electricity initiatives in Africa the essays in this collection offer probing insights into the complex ways in which people are building genuine alternatives to privatization while also illustrating the challenges which communities face in creating public services which are not subordinated to the logic of the market or to the monolithic state entities of the past International Social Science Journal ,1999 Parliamentary Debates (Hansard). Many of the problems are related to difficulties in sustaining cost covering user fees for these sectors This study aims to distill the experience over the last 15 years The main factors in the growth and subsequent decline are examined The report assesses the impact that the private provision of infrastructure has had on service delivery and analyzes the consequences for other important goals Main policy lessons are provided for governments that seek to ensure that the supply of
