Privatization In Central And Eastern Europe Perspectives And Approaches:

Privatization in Central and Eastern Europe June G. Hopps, Demetrius S. Iatridis, 1998-08-27 Central and Eastern European countries are facing the transition from central to market systems with different strategies and capacities As the task of societal transformation is without precedent in world history the massive economic restructuring has revealed the need for distributive justice and general well being As the editors and contributors to this volume point out the monolithic preoccupation with economic restructuring in a market economics framework is implemented at the expense of social protection and security In contrast to traditional views of privatization as only an economic or managerial phenomenon this collection approaches privatization as a broader integrated process of societal transformation Privatization as defined here consists of integrated processes of societal restructuring that affect sociopolitical economic and ideological constructs as well as human and physical capital development transformation of family structures market stabilization and organization of social care Public policymakers as well as scholars and researchers of contemporary Eastern Europe will find this collection of great interest and an important challenge to the economic models of privatization which undervalue social costs Legal

Aspects of Privatisation Bulent Seven, 2002 The main aims of this thesis are as follows a To present a comprehensive analysis of the concept of privatisation its origins and limits b To identify the legal and institutional framework for privatisation in different European countries from a comparative perspective c To define and analyse particularly legal issues which arise during the privatisation transactions e g labour law competition law etc d To evaluate which features of the successful legal and organisational framework of privatisation have been successful so as to provide guidelines for those individuals and organisations participating in the privatisation exercises This work found out that there is no simple internationally applicable recipe for privatisation various legal methods and techniques can be used to privatise state owned enterprises Because each country has different circumstances it is impossible to provide a unique model for privatisation each country needs to design its own model according to its circumstances Privatisation is an essential but insufficient element for structural economic reform in the economy and society Privatisation is not a panacea it is not the solution to every economic and administrative problem selling an enterprise to the private sector does not mean an end to all problems Also privatisation is not an overnight process or a magic touch it will be a lengthy process Furthermore a decision that something can be privatised does not mean that it should be privatised In that context privatisation is not good or bad it is an economic and social instrument If it is well designed it may bring substantial benefits to the economy and society In many countries many state owned enterprises particularly the ones which are financially weak have still not been privatised This finding revealed that the privatisation process will be in the political and economic agenda for at least few more decades

Social Work At The Millennium Robert Morris, 2007-09-12 For the last century social workers have attended to those in need and sought to improve the social and economic conditions of the disadvantaged At the dawn of a new century the country's leading social work practitioners and educators have come together in one stellar volume to assess the successes and failures of the field in its first hundred years. They lay out the road social work must take to face the challenges ahead. Along with two chapters by the editors June Gary Hopps and Robert Morris, Social Work at the Millennium includes ten chapters from an exceptionally strong group of contributors offering a range of interpretations of the future of social work. By looking with a critical eye at the past century and at the present day, the authors come to varying conclusions that will stir debate within the field for years to come. But all agree that social workers need a place at the policy drafting tables as well as in the human services triage rooms and that much work needs to be done to ensure that this happens. Social Work at the Millennium presents the top voices of the social work field as they begin to craft the future of the profession and issues a challenge to social workers, students, scholars, and policy makers to continue the discussion to shape a better future for the profession and the people it serves. Institutioneller Wandel und Transformation Achim Schlüter, 2001

Internationale Unternehmensführung Reinhard Moser, 2010-09-16 Politische Aspekte spielen im Rahmen der internationalen Unternehmenstätigkeit seit jeher eine bedeutende Rolle. Dabei geht es keineswegs allein um die Identifikation und Bewältigung politischer Risiken im internationalen Geschäft, sondern im weitesten Sinne um Einflussnahmen unterschiedlicher Art, die nicht zuletzt angesichts vermehrter staatlicher Eingriffe ins Wirtschaftsleben aktuell vor dem Hintergrund einer Krisenphase stark beachtet werden. Ergänzend dazu umfasst die Vorgabekategorie auch politische Entscheidungen innerhalb von Unternehmen bzw. zwischen Stammhaus und ausländischen Tochtergesellschaften, die im vorliegenden Band angesprochen werden. Er beinhaltet Beiträge, die anlässlich der in Wien abgehaltenen Jahrestagung 2008 der wissenschaftlichen Kommission Internationales Management im Verband der Hochschullehrer für Betriebswirtschaft e.V. präsentiert wurden und ein breites Themenspektrum abdecken. Central Asia and the Caucasus, 2003 Directory of Published Proceedings, 2004 The Transformation of Property Regimes and Transitional Justice in Central Eastern Europe Liviu Damşa, 2017-01-03 This volume examines the property transformations in post communist Central Eastern Europe (CEE) and focuses on the role of restitution and privatisation in such transformations. It argues that the theorisation of restitution in post communist CEE is incomplete in the transitional justice scholarship and in the literature on correction of historical wrongs. The book also argues that for a more complete theorisation of post communist restitution, the transformations of property in post communist societies ought to be studied in a more holistic way. The main legal vehicles used for such transformations, privatisation and restitution, should not be studied separately and in abstract, but in their reciprocal relationship and in connection to the dimension of justice which each could achieve. Finally, the book integrates privatisation in a theory of post communist transformation of property.

Gelegenheit und Entscheidung Helmut Wiesenenthal, 2001-02-23 Entgegen aller Skepsis, welche die Transformationsforschung der ersten Jahre dominierte, wurde das Jahrhundertprojekt eines kompletten Systemwechsels in einer Vielzahl von Fällen erfolgreich bewältigt Infolgedessen ist eine Revision jener Teile des sozialwissenschaftlichen Wissens erforderlich in denen die Möglichkeit umfassender Gesellschaftsreformen bestritten wurde Mittels avancierter quantitativer und qualitativer Methoden der vergleichenden Forschung werden die politischen Entscheidungen aufgedeckt denen positive Resultate geschuldet sind Die kompakten Studien zur politischen und ökonomischen Transformation machen aber auch die fehlerhaften Annahmen kenntlich welche der These von der generellen Unmöglichkeit holistischer Reformen zugrunde liegen
