Privatization The Lessons Of Experience:

Privatization John R. Nellis, Mary M. Shirley, 1992-01-01 Governance as defined by the World Bank in its 1992 report Governance and Development is the manner in which power is exercised in the management of a country's economic and social resources for development The report deemed it is within the Bank's mandate to focus on the following the process by which authority is exercised in the management of a country's economic and social resources the capacity of governments to design formulate and implement policies and discharge functions Also available Governance The World Bank's Experience ISBN 0 8213 2804 2 Stock No 12804 Privatization: the lessons of experience, 1993 Privatization, 1992 How Does Privatization Work? Anthony Bennett, 2002-09-11 Privatization has been one of the most important elements of public policy in the last decade and there have been massive transfers of ownership from the public to the private sector on a national and international level This book combines thematic papers with country case studies to discuss the mechanisms which have enabled this to occur and to assess privatization's mixed achievements The authors international academics practitioners and consultants and the process of privatization is discussed in East Germany Nigeria Pakistan Guyana Sri Lanka Trinidad and Tobago and Great Britain Privatisation and Labour Restructuring Gopal Ganesh, 2008 On privatisation and labour restructuring in India and Sri Lanka International Development Law Rumu Sarkar, 2025-09-29 This textbook describes how international development functions its shortcomings its theoretical and practical foundations along with prescriptions for the future International Development Law provides students with new perspectives on the origins of global poverty identifies legal impediments to sustainable economic growth and provides a better understanding of the challenges faced by the international community in resolving global poverty issues The text is structured into two basic parts the first part deals with the theoretical and philosophic foundations of the subject and the second part sets forth issues related to the international financial architecture namely international borrowing practices privatization and emerging economies This book is a perfect teaching vehicle as it takes a multidisciplinary approach to addressing complex issues legal trends and political questions into a clear new perspective that is highly accessible to the reader A Strategy to Develop Agriculture in Sub-Saharan Africa and a Focus for the World Bank Kevin M. Cleaver, 1993-01-01 For 25 years population growth has outpaced increases in agricultural production in Sub Saharan Africa The lack of food and the degradation of agricultural land have forced policymakers to reassess agricultural strategies for the region This paper provides such a reassessment by identifying policies and investments that have worked and those that have not The author sets out the common elements required for agricultural and rural development throughout the region The strategy presented in this paper comprises elements from several development sectors including transport water supply education finance and the environment The author makes five broad recommendations to promote Region adoption of policies to promote private sector farming and agricultural marketing processing and credit development and distribution of new technologies inclusion of farmers in decisions affecting their livelihood development of infrastructure and social programs in support of agriculture improved management of natural resources Projections of the likely effects of the proposed policies and investments are included Tables throughout the text present statistics on agricultural growth rates commodity prices and deforestation in the region An annex contains more general tables with information on population growth and fertility rates land use agricultural exports and droughts The strategies suggested in this paper will be of interest to policymakers academics and to development practitioners involved in African agriculture
