Flannery O'Connor was a writer of extraordinary power and virtuosity Her strong supple prose blends humor pathos satire and grotesquerie which leads the reader to the evil at the center of the self's labyrinth There she confronts that evil with originality and power pulling the reader into consideration of the terrifying dependencies of love in the recesses of the heart This study focuses on Flannery O'Connor's sense of the coincidence of the eternal and cosmic with worldly time and place the eternal crossroads and how that sense controls and infuses her fiction From an examination of various influences upon Miss O'Connor's work Pierre Teilhard de Chardin Mauriac Nathaniel West and Hawthorne the authors consider her novels and stories as well as several stories never collected Their textual analysis shows that her structures images motifs and symbols became vehicles for anagogical meaning as she progressed from early promise to artistic fulfillment Considering Miss O'Connor's own comments on her writing the authors illuminate some frequently misunderstood features of her work such as her grotesques and her stress on death and violence In so doing they make an important contribution to our understanding of how Flannery O'Connor arrived at the eternal crossroads      Adult Author-title Catalog Orange County Public Library (Calif.), 1971      Chicorel Index to Short Stories in Anthologies and Collections, 1975      Prize Stories, 1947
