Preserving the Hunger Isaac Rosenfeld,1988 Isaac Rosenfeld who died in 1956 at the age of thirty eight was a brilliant and original writer whose work has unfortunately become unavailable to anyone but the scholar A gifted member of a gifted generation his writings shine with the hard light of a burning and troubled intelligence Though Rosenfeld was a man quintessentially of his era grappling with issues and books that may no longer engage us his writing remains fresh because of his commitment to striking deep and remaining open to experience with all the risks entailed thereby In the contemporary climate of academic thought we are badly in need of teachers like Rosenfeld who read books no differently than they conduct their lives with the belief that the world of the phrase can do more than make a point or strike a pose but rather can through intensity poise and grace give meaning to life
