Probably Still Nick Swanson:

Probably Still Nick Swansen Virginia Euwer Wolff, 2002-10 Nick Swansen pretty much knows what it means to be Special Ed You can't drive even if you're sixteen and your parents have two cars the regular kids in school don't talk to you much and even if you can memorize every fact about amphibians it's hard to make sense of all the other stuff swirling in your mind What he doesn't know is whether being Special Ed means you shouldn't go to the prom But since no rule says you can't Nick decides to ask Shana But the prom doesn't turn out at all the way Nick expects it to and everything bad seems to get all mixed up together the prom what Shana does and the terrible thing that happened to Nick's sister nine years ago Nick doesn't want to think about any of it but he begins to realize that unless he makes peace with all the memories that trouble him they will haunt him forever

Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books Liz Knowles, Martha Smith, 2007-05-30 Understanding Diversity Through Novels and Picture Books goes beyond the usual multicultural lists and looks at the wide expanse of the diversity of cultures and lifestyles impacting children's lives in America today and identifies good books to have in library collections for them to read Included are annotated titles with discussion questions from all of the identified cultures and subcultures and annotated teacher/librarian resources print and Web based as well as an excellent list of topical annotated journal articles Grades 4-8 Knowles and Smith examine current research on diversity and multiculturalism They move away from the traditional aspects of multicultural education food fashion folktales festivals and famous people to a focus on novels and picture books and realistic fiction to show children with diversity issues that there are others in similar positions The issue of authenticity whether the author of the book should be of that culture or merely familiar with the culture is discussed Topics include Ethnicities Asian Latino Hispanic African Black Native American White European Bi-Multiracial Exceptionalities Ageism Socioeconomic Status Sexual Orientation Gender and Religion The authors provide this valuable resource for libraries schools and communities that wish to utilize literature to help diverse students walk in the shoes of others and to match books to children and young adults to heighten understanding and acceptance

Grades 4-8 Using Literature to Help Troubled Teenagers Cope with Health Issues Cynthia Ann

Bowman, 2000-03-30 Today traditional illnesses and high risk behaviors of adolescents have become interrelated through the multitude of physical social and emotional changes young people experience Good literature which gives adolescents the truth has incredible power to heal and to renew This reference resource provides a link for teachers media specialists parents and other adults to those novels that can help adolescents struggling with health issues Educators and therapists explore novels where common health issues are addressed in ways to captivate teens Using fictional characters these experts provide guidance on encouraging adolescents to cope while improving their reading and writing skills With the advancement in medicine traditional types of health issues such as birth defects cancer and sensory impairment have shifted to more behavior related problems such as depression alcoholism and eating disorders All of these issues and others are examined from both a literary and psychological perspective in thirteen chapters that explore health issues through fiction Each chapter confronts a different health issue and is written by a literature specialist who has teamed up with a therapist In each novel these experts define the central character s struggle in coming to terms with an issue and growing in response to their difficulties Annotated bibliographies of other works both fiction and nonfiction explore these same issues give readers insight into helping teenagers with similar problems and provide the tools with which to get teenagers reading and addressing these problems Probably Still Nick Swansen Virginia Euwer Wolff,1990-03-01 Fifteen year old special ed student Nick Swansen struggles to overcome his learning disabilities and prove himself to his family teachers friends and above all to himself
