Problem Of Difference Phenomenology And Poststructuralism:

Merleau-Ponty and Derrida Jack Reynolds, 2004 While there have been many essays devoted to comparing the work of Maurice Merleau Ponty with that of Jacques Derrida there has been no sustained book length treatment of these two French philosophers Additionally many of the essays presuppose an oppositional relationship between them and between phenomenology and deconstruction more generally Jack Reynolds systematically explores their relationship by analyzing each philosopher in terms of two important and related issues embodiment and alterity Focusing on areas with which they are not commonly associated e g Derrida on the body and Merleau Ponty on alterity makes clear that their work cannot be adequately characterized in a strictly oppositional way Merleau Ponty and Derrida Intertwining Embodiment and Alterity proposes the possibility of a Merleau Ponty inspired philosophy that does not so avowedly seek to extricate itself from phenomenology but that also cannot easily be dismissed as simply another instantiation of the metaphysics of presence Reynolds argues that there are salient ethico political reasons for choosing an alternative that accords greater attention to our embodied situation As the first full length monograph comparing the philosophers Merleau Ponty and Derrida will interest scholars and students in European philosophy and teachers of courses dealing with deconstruction The Problem of Difference Jeffrey Bell, 1998-12-15 Jeffrey A Bell here presents a finely constructed survey of the contemporary continental philosophers focusing on how they have dealt with the problem of difference The Problem of Difference Jeffrey A. Bell, 1998 Jeffrey A Bell here presents a finely constructed survey of the contemporary continental philosophers focusing on how they have dealt with the problem of difference Eric Voegelin's Dialogue with the Postmoderns Eric Voegelin, 2004 This collection of essays endeavors to generate a dialogue between Eric Voegelin and other prominent twentieth century thinkers and explore some of the more perplexing issues in contemporary political theory Each essay rests on the underlying question is it possible or desirable to construct or discover political foundations without resorting to metaphysical or essentialist constructs The introduction focuses on the two nineteenth century thinkers Nietzsche and Husserl who have framed the debate about modernity and postmodernity thereafter the book examines Voegelin's ideas as compared to those of other twentieth century thinkers Discussed within the volume are Levinas and the precedence of ethics Ricoeur's theory of narrative representation Deleuze and the philosophy of immanence Voegelin's relationship to a speech dimension theory of human behavior and Patocka's theory of pre metaphysical transcendence in Socrates What will impress scholars most about this collection is the provocative dialogue created between Voegelin and other major thinkers of postmodernism that addresses the issue of establishing foundations without foundationalism Post-Structuralism and the Question of History Derek Attridge, Geoff Bennington, Robert Young, 1987 Recent developments in literary theory such as structuralism and deconstruction have come under attack for neglecting history while historically based approaches have been criticized for failing to take account of the problems inherent in their methodological foundations This collection of essays is unique in that it focuses on the relation between post structuralism and historical especially Marxist literary theory and criticism The volume includes a deconstructive reading of Marx essays that relate history to the philosophical and institutional context and a number of studies of particular texts literary and non literary which pose the question of history and literary theory with particular force Phenomenology of Space and Time Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka,2014-02-03

This work celebrates the investigative power of phenomenology to explore the phenomenological sense of space and time in conjunction with the phenomenology of intentionality the invisible the sacred and the mystical It examines the course of life through its ontopoietic genesis opening the cosmic sphere to logos The work also explores on the one hand the intellectual drive to locate our cosmic position in the universe and on the other the pull toward the infinite It intertwines science and its grounding principles with imagination in order to make sense of the infinite This book is the second of a two part work that contains papers presented at the 62nd International Congress of Phenomenology The Forces of the Cosmos and the Ontopoietic Genesis of Life held in Paris France August 2012 It features the work of scholars in such diverse disciplines as biology anthropology pedagogy and psychology who philosophically investigate the cosmic origins of beingness Coverage in this second part includes Communicative Virtues of A T Tymieniecka s Phenomenology of Life Intentionality of Time and Quantum Phenomenological Sense of Space Consciousness of the Cosmos A Thought Experiment Through Philosophy and Science Fiction The Cosmos and Bodily Life on Earth Elucidated within the Historicity of Human Existence Novel as Path Mamardashvili s Lectures on Proust and Comments on Max Scheler s Thought and Philosophical Counseling Das Leben

Documentary Time Malin Wahlberg,2008 Finding the theoretical space where cinema and philosophy meet Malin Wahlberg s sophisticated approach to the experience of documentary film aligns with attempts to reconsider the premises of existential phenomenology The configuration of time is crucial in organizing the sensory affects of film in general but as Wahlberg adroitly demonstrates in nonfiction films the problem of managing time is writ large by the moving image s interaction with social memory and historical figures Wahlberg discusses a thought provoking corpus of classical and recent experiments in film and video including Andy Warhol s films in which creative approaches to the time of the image and the potential archive memory of filmic representation illuminates meanings of temporality and time experience She also offers a methodological account of film and brings Deleuze and Ricoeur into dialogue with Bazin and Mitry on the subject of cinema and phenomenology Drawing attention to the cultural significance of the images imprint as a trace of the past Documentary Time brings to bear phenomenological inquiry on nonfiction film while at the same time reconsidering the existential dimensions of time that have always puzzled humans Malin Wahlberg is a research fellow in cinema studies at Stockholm University The Journal of Philosophy ,1999 Symposium - Société Canadienne Pour L'herméneutique Et la Pensée Postmoderne ,2004 Choice ,2003 A Phenomenology for Women of Color Emily S. Lee,2024-01-15 A Phenomenology for Women of Color Merleau Ponty and Identity in Difference explores how phenomenology can help philosophy of race explain the persistence of race as a key indicator of social standing Engaging with the work of women of color to think more deeply about our racial and gendered structural relations with one another Emily S Lee argues that phenomenology is helpful in two ways 1 race as a social construct is phenomenal and 2 Merleau Ponty s phenomenology centers on embodiment and therefore applies to both feminist and racial concerns Lee defines the phenomenon of race as a structure that is open ended is developed creatively and mediates one s situatedness in the world and relations with others Drawing on ideas from Husserl Heidegger Sartre and Merleau Ponty this book depicts the dynamic and creative expressions of race and racism to address the ambiguities within the experiences of race and sex and ultimately to conceptualize the identity group women of color International Philosophical Quarterly ,1999 The Philosophical Review ,1998
