Problem Of The Twentieth Century:

"Beyond This Narrow Now" Nahum Dimitri Chandler, 2021-11-15 In Beyond This Narrow Now Nahum Dimitri Chandler shows that the premises of W E B Du Bois's thinking at the turn of the twentieth century stand as fundamental references for the whole itinerary of his thought Opening with a distinct approach to the legacy of Du Bois Chandler proceeds through a series of close readings of Du Bois's early essays previously unpublished or seldom studied with discrete annotations of The Souls of Black Folk Essays and Sketches of 1903 elucidating and elaborating basic epistemological terms of his thought With theoretical attention to how the African American stands as an example of possibility for Du Bois and renders problematic traditional ontological thought Chandler also proposes that Du Bois's most well known phrase the problem of the color line sustains more conceptual depth than has yet been understood with pertinence for our accounts of modern systems of enslavement and imperial colonialism and the incipient moments of modern capitalization Chandler's work exemplifies a more profound engagement with Du Bois demonstrating that he must be re read appreciated and studied anew as a philosophical writer and thinker contemporary to our time The Twentieth Century, 1927 The problem of the twentieth century David Davies, 1932 Twentieth-century Literary Criticism Gale Research Company, 1978 Excerpts from criticism of the works of novelists poets playwrights and other creative writers 1900 1960 The Technological Fix Lisa Rosner, 2013-02-01 The term technological fix should mean a fix provided by technology a solution for all of our problems from medicine and food production to the environment and business Instead technological fix has come to mean a cheap quick fix using inappropriate technology that usually creates more problems than it solves This collection sets out the distinction between a technological fix and a true technological solution Bringing together scholars from a variety of disciplines the essays trace the technological fix as it has appeared throughout the twentieth century Addressing such fixes as artificial hearts industrial agriculture and climate engineering these essays examine our need to turn to technology for solutions to all of our problems *O.C.S.
