City Council,1910 Proceedings at the Dedication of the City Hall, September 18, 1865 (Classic Reprint) Boston Boston,2017-11-28 Excerpt from Proceedings at the Dedication of the City Hall September 18 1865 While public spirited individuals have united their means for the erection of many elegant structures appropriated to the institutions which bless our people the city itself through its municipal authorities has not been negligent of its duty in this respect Whatever difference of opinion may have existed as to the expediency of erecting a new City Hall at a time when the dark cloud of civil war was hanging over the country yet its completion is celebrated when the bright beams of peace are cheering the hearts of the people As the work on the magnificent Capitol at Washington in which the National Council holds its session still resolutely went on during the dark period so we with an unfaltering faith in the success of the country s cause abated not one jot or tittle in our original design The inflation of the currency and other circumstances may have swelled the figures on our Treasurer s books but we believe we have pre sented to our constituents a building worth all it has cost About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an
