

RESPONSIBILITY OF AGRICULTURAL RESEARCH

Whereas, decisions permitting, prohibiting, or limiting the use of food and feed additives must be based on scientific evidence

Be It Therefore Resolved, that the attention of the Congress be directed to the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council as a tried and proved source of information of this kind.

Resolution III

Whereas, the National Research Council, in addition to being an open public forum for scientific information, has in the past through its committees and the solicitation of assistance from eminently qualified scientists, provided such information

Be It Therefore Resolved, that the Agricultural Research Institute express its confidence in the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council as a source of scientific information

Be It Further Resolved, that the Agricultural Research Institute through its officers and facilities inform the Congress and the various federal agencies of these services of the National Academy of Sciences-National Research Council.

Resolution IV

Whereas, pesticides are essential to the economic production of adequate quantities of quality food, and

Whereas, research on pesticide residues is essential to the reasonable use of pesticides in accordance with the existing regulations, and

Whereas, pesticide residue research is currently conducted by industry, State Experiment Stations, and the United States Department of Agriculture as a basis for preparing recommendations for the use of pesticides, and

Whereas, it is essential that impetus be given research pertaining to residues in eggs, milk, meat, and other animal products, and

Whereas, pesticide residues in animal products are influenced more by dietary levels than by climatic factors, as is the case with crops

Be It Therefore Resolved, that the Agricultural Research Institute encourage the State Experiment Stations and the United States Department of Agriculture to integrate and coordinate their research in pesticide residues in animal products on a national basis.

A motion to adopt the report was seconded and passed without dissent.

REPORT OF PROJECTS AND PROPOSALS COMMITTEE

A. H. Johnson, Chairman

The Projects and Proposals Committee met in Washington on July 19 to consider various matters that had been put before it by President Burt Johnson, by some members of the committee, and by others. Prior to a meeting, a letter was directed to the members of the Governing Board asking for whatever suggestions they might have for consideration by the Projects and Proposals Committee.
