Perspectives On Pentecost New Testament Teaching On The Gifts Of The Holy Spirit:

Perspectives on Pentecost Richard B. Gaffin, 1993 With exegetical depth objectivity and clarity Richard B Gaffin examines prophecy and tongues and makes a case for the cessation of both gifts at the close of the apostolic era Pentecost is presented as integral to the once for all work of Christ and decisive for the life of the whole church Dr Gaffin s biblical theological perspective is thorough He defines all the spiritual gifts generally he clarifies the nature of prophecy and tongues and the question of their continuance in the church today and he indicates how these exegetical studies bear on contemporary interest in charismatic gifts Back cover

The Pentecostal Reformation Dr. Ashley Neil Smith, 2013-10-09 This book addresses the doctrinal reformation that is currently underway in the Classical Pentecostal movement

Charismatic and Expository Preaching Lewis D. Mathis, 2022-05-11 The purpose of this study on charismatic and expository preaching is to find the common ground of the two preaching methods and solidify them into a sound biblical and theological preaching method that will edify the body of Christ and lead to growth for local churches To solidify charismatic and expository preaching it is necessary to explore the hermeneutical exegetical and homiletical issues that divide the two methods regarding the work of the Holy Spirit and the gifts the Spirit bestows to believers for ministry Charismatic interpretations concerning the gifts of the Spirit revolve around speaking in tongues as the primary identifier of being filled with the Spirit which most expository preachers and scholars view as an incorrect interpretation This study seeks to answer these problems in the quest of unifying both preaching methods

Perspectives on Spirit Baptism Chad Brand, 2004-11-01 Views presented include the

Charismatic the Pentecostal the Reformed the Sacramental and the Wesleyan The Development of the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit in the Yoruba (African) Indigenous Christian Movement Caleb Oluremi Oladipo,1996 Africa will have more than 325 million Christians by the year 2000 making it the most populous Christian continent in the world In this book Dr Oladipo addresses questions about Christian dogma as believers continue to enlarge the boundaries of Christian proclamation He points out that conversion in Africa is the result of African ability to enliven cherished Christian doctrines in their indigenous definition of the Christian faith The book touches a raw nerve by illustrating that religious awareness is the indivisible entity unified by particular human efforts to grasp the totality of existence The Development of the Doctrine of the Holy Spirit in the Yoruba African Indigenous Christian Movement is unique and different written in a spirit of mutual enrichment and transformation The Possibility of Salvation Among the Unevangelised Daniel Strange,2002 Between Horror and Hope is a study of Paul s metaphorical language of death in Romans 6 1 11 The scholarly debate focuses on two main issues the origin of the commentatio mortis tradition and its development Dr Sabou argues that the origin of this terminology is original to Paul that it was the apostle s own insight into the meaning of Christ s death a death to sin and his understanding of the identity of Christ in his death as the anointed davidic king which guided him to create this metaphor of dying to sin as a way of describing the relationship of the believer with sin On the development of this language of death the author argues that this language conveys two aspects horror and hope The first is discussed in the context of crucifixion in which Paul explains the believer s death to sin by presenting Christ s death as the death of the anointed davidic king who won the victory over sin and death by rising from the dead Paul affirms that believers are coalesced with what was proclaimed about Christ s death and resurrection thereby allowing him to assert that the releasing of the body from the power of sin is a result of crucifixion This crucifixion is the condemnation inflicted on our past lives in the age inaugurated by Adam s sin and this is such a horrible event that believers have to stay away from sin since sin leads to such punishment In contrast hope is presented in the context of burial The believers burial with Christ points to the fact that they are part of Christ s family and this is accomplished by the overwhelming action of God by which he pushes us toward the event of Christ s death an act pictured in baptism It is this burial with Christ that allows believers to share with Christ in newness of life On Being Reformed I. John Hesselink,1983 When God Moves John Harper Armstrong,1998 What are the marks of true revival Using careful documentation and specific examples from Scripture and history author John Armstrong gives us a picture of how true revival takes place and tells how we can prepare our own lives for those times The Holy Spirit Watson E. Mills,1988 The Pauline Writings Mark A. Seifrid,Randall K. J. Tan,2002 Two specialists guide readers to the most important works available for the study of the Pauline writings The Coming Evangelical Crisis John Harper Armstrong,1996 A compelling and challenging book this is a valuable resource for pastors teachers leaders and anyone who is concerned about the effectiveness of the church in this generation Evangelical Bible Doctrine Dr. Keith Sherlin,2015-12-10 Over twenty one faithful evangelical Bible teachers have joined together in this work to both honor the legacy of Dr Mal Couch as well as to promote a solid sacred and safe theological manual for the body of Christ Colleagues and friends of Dr Couch such as Dr Wayne House Dr Norman Geisler Dr Arnold Fruchtenbaum Dr Timothy Demy and more along with many of Mals students and disciples set forth in this work a biblical and practical theology The first half of the book covers all twelve of the major biblical doctrines of Christianity The last half covers some of the hottest theological topics and practical issues that present day believers ought to be aware of in order to properly defend the faith In chapter 25 you will meet many of the disciples in Christ that Mal taught over the years as they express their gratitude for this godly giant of the faith So if you are curious about what a holistic evangelical faith looks like and even curious as to how dispensationalism fits within orthodox evangelicalism this book will provide for you a solid resource for many years to come True Revival John Armstrong,2001 With a careful look at both God s Word and historical examples of revival Armstrong gives a clear picture of how true revival takes place and tells how believers can prepare for revival He also addresses how they can discern true revival from false This powerful and inspiring book encourages Christians toward a more intimate and fruitful relationship with God

Pauline Theology: 1 & 2 Corinthians Jouette M. Bassler,1991 Covenant Theology Jeong Koo Jeon,1999 In Covenant Theology author Jeong Koo Jeon makes a much needed contribution to 21st century biblical and systematic theology He explores the debate between John Murray and Meredith G Kline placing their ideas in the larger context of Biblical studies that have had a direct influence on Reformed theology and evangelicalism Although the theologies of Murray and Kline contain significant differences they both maintain a distinction between a covenant of creation and a covenant of grace In addition they both advocate a fundamental antithesis between law and gospel giving a priority to law over gospel in the temporal and logical order of divine works Jeon sees these distinctions as hermeneutic tools that are essential for better understanding of biblical revelation as well as faith grace and atonement Revealing the Mysterion Benjamin L. Gladd,2008 Scholars largely agree that the NT term mysterion is a terminus technicus originating from Daniel This project traces the word in the Dead Sea Scrolls and other sectors of Judaism Like Daniel the term consistently retains eschatological connotations The monograph then examines how mystery functions within 1 Corinthians and seeks to explain why the term is often employed The apocalyptic term concerns the Messiah reigning in the midst of defeat eschatological revelations and tongues charismatic exegesis and the transformation of believers into the image of the last Adam Spiritual Law in the Natural World James Waller Thomas,1894 The Charismatic Movement Charles Edwin Jones,1995-04-28 indispensable for all theological libraries and upper division undergraduate and graduate collections generally METHODIST HISTORY the standard bibliographic source for the topic Recommended for any library supporting the study of religion in the present day U S CHOICE National Union Catalog, 1981 ,1982
