Hope in the Thought of Jacques Ellul

Lawrence J. Terlizze,2005-10-30 Hope expresses more than an area of concentration in Ellul's thought it is the central idea that binds his disparate elements together Ellul believed that at this moment of history the world since 1945 hope must preoccupy our thinking and lives To understand hope we must first comprehend its absence This entails discerning what causes the absence of hope namely the world's embrace of technique and the abandonment of God Ellul also rejected these as a positive affirmation He wanted to make a firm distinction between reality and truth He affirmed modern abandonment as a realistic fact as an accurate analysis of the present condition not as an affirmation of the truth Hope is truth in Jesus Christ but truth must be asserted against these harsh facts He used facts to incite hope in believers to shake their complacency and to realize their actual condition in the world The idea of hope in the thought of Jacques Ellul can only be properly understood in light of dialectic struggle between negatives which amount to factual representations of the modern world and positives through which hope exerts itself in the face of these facts From this tension will issue personal resolve Technique has brought the world to great collective heights and achievements but this has come at the expense of personal ends and meaning Ellul attempted to bridge this gap by asserting individual meaning against the aggregated progress of technique without destroying the gains made by collective advance This represents the central dilemma in Ellul's thought how does one maintain meaning and personal aims in a world founded on corporate necessity from the Introduction The Way to Freedom Nicolás Caballero,1982 Contemporary Authors Scot Peacock,2002-12 Your students and users will find biographical information on approximately 300 modern writers in this volume of Contemporary Authors R A Praying People Dane Anthony Morrison,1995 This is the first book length history of the remnants of the Massachusetts and Wampanoag tribes documenting their struggle to survive devastating epidemics and Puritan colonization Morrison incorporates insights from anthropology and organization studies to show how the adoption of Puritan beliefs and practices by bands of praying Indians constituted a viable if defensive strategy of acculturation The emergent institution of Praying Town became both the organization and the process through which these groups of Native Americans hoped to achieve cultural revitalization Tragically as the remnant peoples looked to Puritan ways for guidance in redefining their identity profound changes within colonial society were leading a new generation of colonists to subsume their own spiritual mission under more commercial concerns In linking their destiny to weakening elements in Puritan culture the Praying Indians were left unprotected when King Philip's War recast the framework of relations between colonists and Native Americans

Book of All Saints

Adrienne von Speyr, 2011-04-04 Adrienne von Speyr a renowned mystic and spiritual writer from Switzerland was received into the Catholic Church at the age of 38 on the Feast of All Saints 1940 by one of the theological giants of the 20th century Fr Hans Urs von Balthasar He became her spiritual director and confessor until her death in 1967 during which time Adrienne was favored with many gifts of authentic mystical prayer Balthasar considered one of the central characteristics of Adrienne's prayer to be her transparency to the inspirations she received from God along with a deep personal communion with the saints Over a period of many years Adrienne would see the saints and other devout people at prayer and she would dictate what she saw to Fr von Balthasar while she was in a state of mystical prayer Through a unique charism she was able to put herself in the place of various individuals to see and describe their prayer their whole attitude before God Not all of her subjects are saints in the strict sense of the word but all struggled with varying degrees of success to place their lives at the disposal of their Creator This book presents these unique mystical insights into the prayer lives of many saints taken from Adrienne's direct visions of them in prayer Among the long list of saints in this book are St John the Apostle St Augustine St Francis St Thomas Aquinas St Ignatius of Loyola St Teresa of Avila St John of the Cross St John Bosco St Bernadette St Dominic St Edith Stein and many many more In this powerful spiritual work the reader is able to participate in the devotional and spiritual life of the Church throughout the centuries by learning how numerous saints and devout people prayed thus reflecting on the timelessness and beauty of the prayer of the Church
