Prayers of the Ages

Caroline Snowden Whitmarsh,2015-06-17 Excerpt from Prayers of the Ages The disciples of Christ asked how his great works of healing had been wrought and he answered This kind can come forth by nothing but by prayer and fasting To show how the great healers and helpers of the world have prayed has been my aim in compiling this volume It may seem contradictory to omit from such a work those noble Hebrew Prayers with which the Scriptures abound and that central Prayer of the Church the liturgy which has come down from Apostolic times but they are already to be found in every home and wishing to make a useful rather than a curious book I have abandoned my original purpose of giving these with their changes as used in different times and by different churches About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Prayers of the Middle Ages

Various,2015-02-13 The period covered by these prayers is that of a thousand years from A D 500 to A D 1500 Generally speaking the period is from the fall of Rome to the Reformation This period was formerly called the Dark Ages Evidence of the lack of light has been found in the lack of material in some of the centuries It has been hard to find any prayers in a few However taken collectively it is seen that there was much light that came out of these ages The Church was kept alive by those who kept the light burning The latter half of this period is now called the Golden Age of Mysticism The arrangement of the prayers is century by century There are some questions about dates of these as well as authorship The authorities do not always agree We are indebted to many collections of prayers and to other sources Some of the books which have been most valuable are Prayers of the Ages compiled by Caroline S Whitmarsh Of the Imitation of Christ Great Souls at Prayer arranged by Mrs Mary W Tileston The Cloud of Witness by Hon Mrs Gell Prayers from the collection of the late Baron Bunsen A Chain of Prayer Across the Ages compiled by Selina Fitzherbert Fox Prayers We Love to Pray arranged by Edward Leigh Pell Morning Readings compiled by Frank M Rich Prayers of the Saints by Cecil Headlam Prayers Ancient and Modern compiled by Mary Wilder Tileston Ancient Collects by Rev William Bright Prayers Massachusetts Council of the Church Service League Theologia Germanica The Cloud of Unknowing His Words of Admonition and Praises of God by St Francis of Assisi Common Prayers for Family Use by Westcott

Whitmarsh,2018-03-02 Excerpt from Prayers of the Ages Augustine and other works not in print in this country I have made large selections and also from the memoirs and private diaries of such men and women as were great in goodness from Fenelon and Oberlin and Madame Guyon from Arnold of Rugby and Wilberforce and Charming and Sir Thomas Browne and Jeremy Taylor and Wilson and Andrewes and Luther from the countless saints and martyrs of the Romish Church from saints of heathen times like Socrates and Epictetus from Mahomet Saadi and the Hindoo Vedas from modern books of prayer in various denominations and from those excellent manuals of devotion in which the Roman Church abounds and which are fitted to every shade of character and every emergency of life through that fine tact which the disciples of Loyola so wisely cultivate The prayers are given without alterations except in a very few instances some necessary abridgment A religious rather than a literary genius has been my test in making the selections I have sought for records of the conversation in heaven the heavenly places of the soul which the saints enjoyed while on earth the ladders of light whereby they have drawn earth closer to heaven About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Teach Us to Pray Katharine Mahon,2019-04-01 The study of liturgical reform is usually undertaken through a close examination of liturgical texts In order to consider the impact of reform on the worship life of Christians Katharine Mahon takes a wider view of liturgy by considering the worship practices of Christian churches beyond what appears in the rites themselves Looking at how Christians were taught how to pray and instructed in liturgical and sacramental participation Mahon explores the late medieval patterns of Christian ritual formation and the transformation of these patterns in the sixteenth century reforms of Martin Luther Thomas Cranmer and Roman Catholic leaders She uses the Lord's Prayer the backbone of medieval lay catechesis liturgical participation and private prayer to paint a panorama of medieval ritual formation integrated into the life of the church in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries She then follows the disintegration and reconstruction of that system of formation through the changing functions of the Lord's Prayer in the official reforms of catechesis liturgy and prayer in the sixteenth century
