Preaching That Speaks To Women:

Preaching That Speaks to Women Alice Mathews, 2003-05 Invites preachers to consider how gender affects the way sermons are understood and calls them to preaching that relates to the entire congregation Preaching Women Liz Shercliff, 2019-10-30 Should women who preach preach as women Preaching Women argues that far from being a gender neutral space the pulpit is a critical place in which a gender imbalance can begin to be redressed There is a vital need for women preachers to speak out of their experience of living as women in today s culture and church Filling a glaring gap in the literature around homiletics Filling a glaring gap in the literature around homiletics Preaching Women considers reasons why women preachers should preach from their experiences as women what women bring to preaching that is missing without us and how women preachers can go about the task of biblical preaching With a foreword by Libby Lane The Inner Life of the Religious Societies of the Commonwealth, Etc Robert Barclay (of Tottenham.), 1876 10 Lies the Church Tells Women J. Lee Grady, 2006 In his revised and updated book which includes testimonials Grady boldly proclaims the truth of the gospel that men and women are appointed by God and empowered by Him Colored Women Sittin' on High Melanie R. Hill, 2025-04-23 From blue note turmoil to grace note power Black women preachers stand tall In Colored Women Sittin on High Melanie R Hill offers a new perspective on the art of the sermon in African American literature music and theology Drawing on the womanist cadence of Alice Walker in literature and the rhythmical flow of named womanist theologians Hill makes interventions at the intersections of African American literary criticism music and religious studies Pushing against the patriarchal dominance that often exists in religious spaces Hill argues that Black women s religious practice creates a sermonic space that thrives inside and outside the church allowing for a critique of sexism and anti Black racism She examines literature by writers such as Zora Neale Hurston and James Baldwin music by Aretha Franklin and Ms Lauryn Hill and sermons by theologians Ruby Sales and Vashti M McKenzie and she takes readers into a sermonic artwork of artists preachers and freedom movement activists who are as Hill contends the greatest virtuosic alchemists of our time

Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit Plain preaching for a year, ed. by E. Fowle Edmund Fowle, 1881 Preacher and Homiletic Monthly , 1887 A Treatise on the Preparation and Delivery of Sermons John Albert Broadus, 1881 The Preacher and Homiletic Monthly , 1878 An Apology for the True Christian Divinity Robert Barclay, 1886 Modern Scottish pulpit, sermons by ministers of various denominations Scottish pulpit,1880 Talks with men, women and children David Davies,1892 History of Woman Suffrage Elizabeth Cady Stanton,Susan Brownell Anthony,Matilda Joslyn Gage,Ida Husted Harper,1886 Women Preachers and Prophets through Two Millennia of Christianity Beverly Mayne Kienzle,Pamela J. Walker,2023-09-01 For nearly two millennia despite repeated prohibitions Christian women have preached Some have preached in official settings others have found alternative routes for expression Prophecy teaching writing and song have all filled a broad definition of preaching This anthology with essays by an international group of scholars from several disciplines investigates the diverse voices of Christian women who claimed the authority to preach and prophesy The contributors examine the centuries of arguments grounded in Pauline injunctions against women s public speech and the different ways women from the early years of the church through the twentieth century have nonetheless exercised religious leadership in their communities Some of them based their authority solely on divine inspiration others were authorized by independent minded communities a few were even recognized by the church hierarchy With its lively accounts of women preachers and prophets in the Christian tradition this exceptionally well documented collection will interest scholars and general readers alike For nearly two millennia despite repeated prohibitions Christian women have preached Some have preached in official settings others have found alternative routes for expression Prophecy teaching writing and song have all filled a broad definition Rhetorical Theory by Women Before 1900 Jane Donawerth,2002 This anthology is the first to feature women s rhetorical theory from the fifth through the nineteenth centuries Assembling selections on rhetoric composition and communication by 24 women around the world this valuable collection demonstrates an often overlooked history of rhetoric as well as women s interest in conversation as a model for all discourse Among the theorists included are Aspasia Pan Chao Sei Shonagon Madeleine de ScudZry Hannah More Hallie Quinn Brown and Mary Augusta Jordan The book also contains an extensive introduction explanatory headnotes and detailed annotations The Sunday Magazine ,1873 Our Famous Women ,1884 Lutheran Woman Today ,1992 The Missionary Review of the World ,1939
