Preaching With Conviction:

How Effective Sermons End Ben Awbrey, 2022-07-21 Extremely rare is the preacher whose preaching could not be improved substantially by readdressing his sermon conclusions Moreover a sermon conclusion marks the typical preacher's greatest need for improvement in his preaching This most significant element of a sermon has been championed for its importance in a sermon and yet the conclusion is trivialized in if not omitted from the preaching of sermons Whether textual topical or expository in preaching methodology the typical preacher has a greater understanding and better implementation of everything else related to preaching in contrast to what is understood and done in concluding sermons Much is not done and much more is not understood to conclude sermons with clarity strength and persuasiveness How Effective Sermons End provides a comprehensive approach and thorough examination of the sorely needed and long overlooked instruction regarding that most vital of all elements of a sermon the sermon conclusion This book fills the existing void in homiletical pedagogy about concluding sermons a void that prevents preachers from reaching their full potential of effectiveness in the ministry of preaching the Word of God The pathway of better preaching is knowledge and skill to effectively conclude sermons and this book floods that pathway with light The Homiletic Review ,1896 Redemptive-Historical Hermeneutics and Homiletics Yung Hoon Hyun, 2015-04-14 This book focuses on redemptive historical hermeneutics and homiletics within New Testament theology This is a valuable legacy of the Reformed tradition despite differences in interpreting and preaching Bible texts that surfaced in Holland 1920s and 1930s and the United States 1970s onwards before influencing Korean Reformed churches The background origin distinctiveness and development of these theological debates is explored and evaluated before the features of redemptive history in Korea are identified The influence of Western redemptive historical scholars on the Korean debate are also analyzed Here is a major and contemporary contribution to reformed historical hermeneutics and homiletics that is relevant for Korean Reformed churches but also for all Reformed churches worldwide The H.U.C. Journal ,1896 Homiletic Review ,1891 Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly ,1890 Lectures on Preaching Matthew Simpson, 1879 The Homiletic Review ,1920 A Treatise on the Preparation and Delivery of Sermons John Albert Broadus, 1874 Lectures on Preaching Ezekiel Gilman Robinson, 1883 The Message of 1 and 2 Thessalonians John Stott, 2021-03-18 How do two brief letters to a church in first century Macedonia speak to us today John Stott demonstrates that Paul's letters to the Christians in Thessalonica offer three key messages to churches at the beginning of the twenty first century a model for ministry as Paul's self giving prayerful love for the church challenges Christian leaders a vision for the local church as the apostle touches on evangelism pastoral care ethical standards fellowship worship obedience and future hope an affirmation of our faith as he repeatedly returns to the foundation facts that Christ has died Christ is risen and Christ will come again Characterised by John Stott's customary clarity and perception this exposition illuminates aspects of Christian life and service that are at the heart of God's purposes for this people today Lectures on preaching Matthew Simpson (bp. of the Methodist episcopal Ch. in the U.S.A.),1879
