Ghosts in the Consulting Room Adrienne Harris, Margery Kalb, Susan Klebanoff, 2016-04-20 Ghosts in the Consulting Room Echoes of Trauma in Psychoanalysis is the first of two volumes that delves into the overwhelming often unmetabolizable feelings related to mourning The book uses clinical examples of people living in a state of liminality or ongoing melancholia The authors reflect on the challenges of learning to move forward and embrace life over time while acknowledging witnessing and working through the emotional scars of the past Bringing together a collection of clinical and theoretical papers Ghosts in the Consulting Room features accounts of the unpredictable effects of trauma that emerge within clinical work often unexpectedly in ways that surprise both patient and therapist In the book distinguished psychoanalysts examine how to work with a variety of ghosts as they manifest in transference and countertransference in work with children and adults in institutional settings and even in the very founders and foundations of the field of psychoanalysis itself They explore the dilemma of how to process loss when it is unspeakable and unknowable often manifesting in silence or gaps in knowledge and living in strange relations to time and space This book will be of interest to psychotherapists and psychoanalysts as well as social workers family therapists psychologists and psychiatrists It will appeal to those specializing in bereavement and trauma and on a broader level to sociologists and historians interested in understanding means of coping with loss and grief on both an individual and larger scale basis

Kabbalah and psychoanalysis are conceptions about the nature of reality The former is over two thousand years old The latter has been formalized less than a hundred years ago Nonetheless they are parallel journeys of discovery that have forever altered not only what we see but the very nature of seeing itself The domain of Kabbalah is the spiritual and material macrocosm In contrast the concern of psychoanalysis is the microcosm the innermost recesses of the human mind However both are convergent and complementary theories Kabbalah asserts as above so below meaning the Godhead the source of everything is reflected in the smallest details of existence Similarly psychoanalysis traces the evolution from inner objects to family feuds and social fields More than theories however Kabbalah and psychoanalysis test the limits of direct experience They are contemplative meditative and introspective methods for restoring shattered worlds and fragmented lives These are material as well as spiritual entities which have been separated from their source on one hand the Godhead and on the other personal praxis The purpose of this study is to explore how Kabbalah and psychoanalysis converge and diverge complement and conflict with each other in order to amplify their impact and enable mankind to gain a greater understanding of reality
