Domestic Ritual in Ancient Mesoamerica Patricia Scarborough Plunket, 2002 Focuses on ritual expression in at the household level comparing the manifestation of domestic ritual across time and space in both the cores and peripheries of ancient Mesoamerica in the cities and in the villages The authors explore the ways in which cosmological principles and concepts of the sacred were used in the construction of ritual space and practice how local landscapes provided templates for the images and paraphernalia recovered from archaeological contexts how foreign enclaves relied on ritual for social reproduction and how domestic ritual was related to and indeed embedded in institutionalized state religions The Rise and Fall of Civilizations: Modern Archaeological Approaches to Ancient Cultures C. Lekson, 2009 According to archaeologist Stephen H Lekson much of what we think we know about the Southwest has been compressed into conventions and classifications and orthodoxies This book challenges and reconfigures these accepted notions by telling two parallel stories one about the development personalities and institutions of Southwestern archaeology and the other about interpretations of what actually happened in the ancient past While many works would have us believe that nothing much ever happened in the ancient Southwest this book argues that the region experienced rises and falls kings and commoners war and peace triumphs and failures In this view Chaco Canyon was a geopolitical reaction to the Colonial Period Hohokam expansion and the Hohokam Classic Period was the product of refugee Chacoan nobles chased off the Colorado Plateau by angry farmers Far to the south Casas Grandes was a failed attempt to create a Mesoamerican state and modern Pueblo people with societies so different from those at Chaco and Casas Grandes deliberately rejected these monumental hierarchical episodes of their past From the publisher The second printing of A History of the Ancient Southwest has corrected the errors noted below SAR Press regrets an error on Page 72 paragraph 4 also Page 275 note 2 regarding absolute dates 50 000 dates was incorrectly published as half a million dates Also P 125 lines 13 14 Between 21 000 and 27 000 people lived there should read Between 2 100 and 2 700 people lived there Die Keramik von Xkipché Michael Vallo, 2002 This substantial volume presents an in depth discussion and extensive illustrated catalogue of the ceramics from and around the Mayan settlement of Xkipiche on the Yucatan Peninsula Sections establish a typology and chronology for the vessels discovered between 1928 and 1971 and place them within their archaeological context Perspectives on Ancient Maya Rural Complexity Gyles Iannone, Samuel V. Connell, 2003 Settlement archaeology in the Maya area has focused much of its attention on the polar extremes of the settlement continuum As a result of this urban rural bias a whole range of complex rural settlements remain under explored The chapters in this volume highlight the variable quality of these middle
