

UNDERSTANDING THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN POINT OF VIEW AND PERSPECTIVE

POINT OF VIEW

- The vantage point of the narrator (where the narrator stands as he or she views the events of the story).
- What the lens sees.
- The focus is on WHO is telling the story.

PERSPECTIVE

- How a character views something based on his or her experiences, beliefs, background, knowledge, preferences, feelings, thoughts, opinions, etc.
- What shapes the lens.
- The focus is on HOW the story is told.

Look at the illustration. It shows four people viewing the tree from the same vantage point (point of view) but with unique perspectives. Look at how each person's unique perspective changes how he or she views the exact same thing.

Perspectives On Writing In Grades 1 8:

Perspectives on Writing in Grades 1-8 Shirley M. Haley-James,1981 Summarizing the best current thinking about what classroom approaches produce sound writing experiences in the first eight grades this book offers teachers a means of checking on their own practices and perceptions about how writing can best be learned The first chapter of the book presents a historical review of authoritative opinion regarding appropriate instruction in written composition The recommendations of those authorities are distilled into eleven observations about effective writing instruction and these observations in turn provide the philosophical framework for the remaining chapters Chapter two cites data gleaned in a random survey of teaching practices in use in fourth grade classrooms and suggests that while some of the teaching practices utilized are in concert with those recommended by the authorities cited in chapter one other practices are in direct conflict with a substantial body of professional literature Reports of other successful classroom teaching practices and writing programs are detailed in chapters three through six These chapters discuss the importance of a specific purpose and audience for a piece of writing as well as the necessity of prewriting rewriting and evaluating writing Chapter seven details the trends of writing related research in the past 50 years the role of the classroom teacher in such research more recent developments in research practices and future research needs emphasizing the necessity of conducting writing research in context HOD The Formation of School Subjects Thomas S. Popkewitz,2018-10-03 Originally published in 1987 This volume focuses upon the emergence of the subject matter of the American school This provides entrance to looking at the interplay between social cultural economic and professional interests that give form to contemporary school practices The historical detail enables understanding of how school knowledge is shaped and fashioned by issues of structural continuity and social transformation This selection of chapters looks at how practices have been shaped by the struggles to define the American school curriculum in different subjects The authors bring out how particular social values are made into ideologies and examine the past to enable consideration of the possibilities for further development Resources in Education ,1992

we need to do a better job of assessing students either with new tests or new applications of tests All argue that at this very critical time it is imperative that educators be very knowledgeable about assessment and the ways assessment information is used to make decisions about students The book is intended for a first course in assessment for those whose careers require understanding and informed use of assessment data The primary audience comprises those who are or will be teachers in
