Preaching From Lukeacts The Rochester College Lectures On Preaching Series Vol 1:

Preaching from Luke/Acts David Fleer,Dave Bland,2011-06-14 The context for this book is rooted in the life of the local church We desire to integrate biblical scholarship and homiletical theory with the task of preaching Luke Acts Our prayer is that the responsible integration of these resources will increase the ability of the Holy Spirit to empower preachers for faithful proclamation of God s word To that end we give God the glory From the editor s Introduction L'Évangile selon saint Luc: 19,28-24,53 François Bovon,1991 The Book of Amos M. Daniel Carroll R.,2020-11-19 In this commentary on the book of Amos Daniel Carroll combines a detailed reading of the Hebrew text with attention to its historical background and current relevance What makes this volume unique is its special attention to Amos s literary features and what they reveal about the book s theology and composition Instead of reconstructing a hypothetical redactional history this commentary offers a close reading of the canonical form against the backdrop of the eighth century BCE The Secularization of Baptism Mark G. McKim,2025-01-31 Does God actually do anything in baptism Is it more than just a symbol Most early Baptists would have answered yes Most Baptists today would answer no How and why did this change happen and does it matter Providing thorough documentation of the changing understandings of baptism among American Canadian and English Baptists from the 1600s to the present day The Secularization of Baptism demonstrates that four factors led to the symbolic only position becoming dominant These were suspicion in reaction to Roman Catholicism of the idea of God revealing himself through the physical the influence of the Enlightenment and embarrassment with claims that God could be acting in the world today reaction against the Oxford Movement and reaction against the understanding of baptism advocated by the Disciples of Christ Campbellites The now dominant symbolic only position so focuses attention on what the believer is doing in baptism that God is seen as largely absent from and doing nothing through the rite in effect believers baptism has been secularized A carefully reasoned biblical and theological argument is made for a return to the Regular Particular Baptist view that God is both profoundly spiritually present and active in baptism while at the same time rejecting the sacramentalist position advocated by a small number of mid twentieth and twenty first century Baptists such as H Wheeler Robinson George Beasley Murray Stanley K Fowler and Anthony R Cross Who's who Among North American Authors ,1931 Covering the United States and Canada with their possessions and neighbors and containing the biographical and literary data of living authors whose birth or activities connect them with the continent of North America with a press section devoted to journalists and magazine writers varies slightly Directory of American Scholars: Philosophy, religion and law ,1999

Preaching Luke-acts Ronald James Allen,2000 The gospel of Luke and the book of Acts provde researchers with new perspectives on some of the deepest longings of our time the search for a transcendent perspective on the meaning of life yearning for community and other issues that resonate with contemporary concerns In this book Allen raises up common motifs that occur in Luke and Acts and shows how these motifs can be used for effective preaching Preaching Luke-Acts

Ronald J. Allen, 2014-07-15 Author raises up common motifs that occur in Luke and Acts and shows how those motifs can be used for effective preaching Lectures on the Gospel according to Luke James Foote, 1849 Preaching Luke-Acts David Schnasa Jacobsen, Günter Wasserberg, 2001 In Preaching Luke Acts David Schnasa Jacobsen and Günter Wasserberg introduce preachers to the big picture about Luke Acts They provide helpful guidance in seeing how an understanding of the larger scheme and purpose of these books can inform and enliven one's preaching of the texts They demonstrate that the author of Luke Acts wrote out of a specific set of pastoral concerns and they then relate these concerns to a contemporary context For example they provide specific help in understanding the strain of anti Judaism that runs through the writing They provide well detailed examinations of several Luke Acts texts drawn from the lectionary placing them in the context of the overall pastoral and theological purpose of the book and outlining a possible sermon to be preached from the text

Preaching Through Luke James C. Goodloe IV, 2014-01-22 Luke wrote this Gospel so that you Theophilus may have certainty concerning the things you have been taught i.e. catechesis 1-4 It proceeds with a barrage of questions The first comes from Zechariah How shall I know 1-18 This is a question of knowledge The angel Gabriel answers that we shall know by the word of God 1-19 The second comes from Mary How will this be 1-34 This is a question of agency of how the Son of God can become human Gabriel answers that it will be by the power of God 1-35 The third comes from Elizabeth Why me 1-43 Why should the gospel of Jesus Christ come to her Mary answers that it has to do with God's choice election mercy and salvation 1-47-55 The fourth has to do with John What then will this child be 1-66 Zechariah answers that he will be a prophet 1-76-79 John is not the Christ but he will go before the Christ Thus begins the catechism according to Luke a series of questions in order that we may have certainty concerning the things we have been taught Preaching Through the Christian Year from the Gospel Story of Luke - Acts, 1959 A Narrative Preaching of the Holy Spirit in Luke-Acts Younghwan Kim, 2008
