Preaching Justice Ethnic And Cultural Perspectives:

Preaching Justice Christine Marie Smith, 1998 Before a word of justice or liberation can be preached the minister needs to understand what is oppressing a people In Preaching Justice eight persons offer a theological analysis of specific communities Kathy Black persons with disabilities Martin Brokenleg Native Americans Teresa Fry Brown African Americans Eleazar Fernandez Filipino Americans Justo Gonzalez Hispanics Eunjoo Mary Kim Korean Americans Stacy Offner Jews and Christine Marie Smith lesbian gay community More than mere reports the chapters bring us inside the circle of each community so that we can experience a portion of their life The act of doing theology is made concrete and personal as each author moves from elements of oppression to primary symbols of justice and liberation Preaching Promise withing the Paradoxes of Life Len Hansen, 2019-01-01 Paradoxes have become characteristic of the world we live in poverty and privilege empire and oppression migration and enclaves seeking war and peace justice and injustice reconciliation and revenge During the 2016 Societas Homiletica annual conference held in South Africa these paradoxes served as a rediscovery of the calling of preachers to deliver the promise that lies within life s contradictions A divine promise brought forth by the grace of God and the gospel of Christ embodied in and through us by the Spirit of Christ This promise may take many forms and calls for discernment and often interrupts the status quos in surprising shocking ways It is a promise that interrupts in order to comfort

Preaching and Social Issues Leah D. Schade, 2024-10-08 Preaching and Social Issues Tools and Tactics for Empowering Your Prophetic Voice equips preachers to craft sermons that help congregations talk about topics of public concern based on strong ethical biblical and theological foundations as well as prudent sermon strategies Informed by years of research with clergy and congregations Leah D Schade provides practical and pastoral guidance for preachers to find their prophetic voice for their context with integrity and wisdom Preaching and Social Issues offers an assessment tool for gauging risk and capacity for preaching about social issues and suggests three approaches Gentle Invitational and Robust This book includes case studies and sermons that illustrate different approaches for preaching about contemporary topics

The Suffering of Job and an Enfleshed Homiletic Amy McLaughlin-Sheasby, 2025-10-16 McLaughlin Sheasby engages with how suffering shapes theological imagination and the impact that the traumatic wounds of others has on preaching McLaughlin Sheasby uses the story of Job a man whose life has been destroyed for no reason as God admits in Job 2 3 to develop an enfleshed homiletic which problematizes God talk in the presence of radical suffering McLaughlin Sheasby argues that what Job needs are friends who are willing to see his wounds and bear faithful witness but that none of them are willing to transform their theological positions in order to speak truly about Job s situation In Job 42 7 God affirms Job in his truth telling while scolding the friends for their refusal to speak truly In this McLaughlin Sheasby finds a strong guiding principle for preachers the capacity to speak truly of God is dependent upon the capacity to speak truly of the suffering of others In other words the degree to which preachers can faithfully speak of God in this world depends upon willingness to be confronted and transformed by the wounds of others On this basis McLaughlin Sheasby proposes a theological and practical vision of preaching that is ethically responsive to those beyond the pulpit asking the question what does it look like for preachers to become faithful witnesses to the suffering of others

Beyond Rhetoric Samuel George Hines, Curtiss Paul DeYoung, 2011-04-01 In Beyond Rhetoric the late Samuel Hines and Curtiss DeYoung place reconciliation at the very center of God's agenda for humankind In so doing they provide both inspiration and guidance for faithful Christian living that embraces a passionate pursuit of reconciliation

Religion and Migration Andrea Bieler, Isolde Karle, HyeRan Kim-Cragg, Ilona Nord, 2019-10-31 This volume explores religious discourses and practices of hospitality in the context of migration It articulates the implied ambivalences and even contradictions as well as the potential to contribute to a more just world through social interconnection with others The book features contributors from diverse national denominational cultural and racial backgrounds Their essays reveal a dichotomy of hospitality between guest and host while tackling the meaning of home or the loss of it interrogating both the peril and promise of the relationship between religion chiefly Christianity and hospitality and focusing on the role of migrants vulnerability and agency by drawing from empirical theological sociological and anthropological insights emerged from postcolonial migration contexts With contributions by Andrea Bieler Jione Havea Claudia Hoffmann HyeRan Kim Cragg Claudia Jahnel Isolde Karle Buhle Mpofu Armin Nassehi Ilona Nord Henrietta Nyamnjoh Regina Polak Ludger Pries Thomas Reynolds Harsha Walia Julia Well and Birgit Weyel Religion und Migration Dieser Band beschäftigt sich mit religiösen Diskursen und religiöser Praxis die Gastfreundschaft im Kontext von Migration thematisieren Dabei werden sowohl Potenziale identifiziert die in Richtung größerer Gerechtigkeit und sozialer Verbundenheit weisen als auch Ambivalenzen und Widersprüche Das Buch präsentiert Beiträge die verschiedene nationale konfessionelle kulturelle und ethnische Kontexte reflektieren Dabei kommen die problematischen sowie die verheißungsvollen Dimensionen der Dichotomie von Gast und Gastgebersein in den Blick die der Fokus auf Gastfreundschaft insbesondere im Christentum impliziert Die Frage nach dem Zusammenhang von Verletzbarkeit und Handlungsmacht von Migrantinnen und Migranten wird aus empirischer theologischer soziologischer sowie anthropologischer Perspektive beleuchtet

Becoming a New Church Malcolm L. Warford, 2000 Since church membership has entered into a period of rapid decline the church is being challenged to renew and redefine itself and its ministries by liberating itself from past constraints and crafting new ways of being the church Becoming A New Church offers Malcolm Warford's well reasoned articulate reflections on what meeting this challenge means For Warford renewal is not a matter of restoring what already has been but being committed to thoughtful faith based innovation He invites us to think of ourselves as pilgrims in a community where there are no clearly marked road signs but where we have a shared memory of Jesus who made us free to live open to the world and its potential for transformation

The Politics of Worship William Johnson Everett, 1999 Everett offers a new way to examine the language and symbols of liturgy Acknowledging the important contributions that anthropology sociology and psychology have made to liturgical reform he points out that we still lack the models to adequately address the underlying monarchical imagery What is needed he believes is an understanding of political theory an understanding consistent with a Christian ethic of inclusiveness and mutuality BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Evangelism Among African American Presbyterians Marsha Snulligan Haney,2007-05-23 As Presbyterians Lutherans Methodists Disciples of Christ and other predominantly European centered Christian denominations of North America seek to respond as a faith community to the increasingly dynamic ethnic and cultural diversity within our society this book offers a sobering yet valuable perspective By understanding the ministry of Christian evangelism as a construct that speaks of the power of divine transformation personal and communal and the embrace of a way of life this work argues for a multi variant approach that values the philosophical aspects of cultural differences which are effective and faithful models of Christian evangelism An analysis of key missiological concepts such as mission histories ethno theologies worldview culture ethnic cohesion and contextualization is appropriated to illuminate the theological voices and evangelical practices of a specific people or ethnicity shaped by a journey of spiritual faith While the numerical significance of self identified African American Presbyterians may appear small their synergistic encounter of human identity and religious faith historical experience in the church and the impact of their evangelical presence provide an excellent case study for discerning the twenty first century challenges of evangelism This thorough study of history theology organizational structures methods and techniques will serve as a valuable tool in evaluating the impact of the faith journey of African American Presbyterians and its challenges for today and the future God Comes Out Olive Elaine Hinnant,2007 God Comes Out is the third book in The Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies in Religion and Ministry series a growing series jointly sponsored by The Pilgrim Press and The Center for Lesbian and Gay Studies in Religion and Ministry at Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley California Book jacket Daring to Speak in God's Name Mary Alice Mulligan,Rufus Burrow,2002 Mulligan and Burrow focus on God s expectation that justice and righteousness be carried out in the world One key aspect of this is that although we must constantly struggle to do what God requires there is the divine promise that God will never abandon us The authors create a model for ethical prophecy utilizing the 8th century B C E Hebrew prophets and present a discussion on practical applications in church settings Emerging Voices, Urgent Choices Edwin I. Cochran,2000 Dakota Cross Bearer is the story of a remarkable man Harold S Jones a Dakota Indian who rose through the ranks of the Episcopal Church to become the first Native American bishop of a Christian church Born in 1909 and raised on the Santee Reservation in Nebraska Jones lost his parents at an early age and was adopted by his grandparents who brought him up as a Christian. Each year his family attended the Niobrara Convocation, a large gathering of Episcopalians drawn from all of the Siouan communities. Jones attended Seabury Western Seminary in Illinois. After graduating, he was assigned to a variety of Native American missions across the northern plains, including those at Wounded Knee, Oglala, and the Cheyenne River Reservation, as well as the Navajoland mission in the southwest. Despite encountering discrimination from within the Episcopal Church throughout his career, in 1971 he was elected suffragan bishop of the diocese of South Dakota. Jones's biography sheds light on the importance of Christianity for the Dakotas and other Native American peoples during the twentieth century. His story yields interesting insights into the history of twentieth-century missionary activity among Native Americans and illuminates instances of conflict and discrimination within the Episcopal Church, the processes of clerical training and testing, and the demands of constant relocation.
