Wolfgang Guggemos

Precious Liquid Drinking Water And Culture In The Valley Of Mexico:

A Precious Liquid Michael C. Ennis-McMillan, 2006 The text provides an ethnographic analysis of the social and cultural aspects of installing and managing a piped drinking water system in La Purificacion Tepetitla a community located in the densely populated and semiarid region of the Valley of Mexico The account shows how politics and culture shape community initiatives to develop adequate and equitable drinking water supplies in the Valley of Mexico s changing ecology The research is based on 22 months of ethnographic fieldwork carried out from 1993 to 2000 The book applies the culture concept to drinking water issues and furthers students understanding of human diversity in terms of economics ecological adaptation politics kinship gender ethnicity health beliefs and practices and religion and ritual Indigenous Mexico Engages the 21st Century Jay Sokolovsky, 2016-07 This innovative multimedia interactive ethnography researched over a period of four decades explores the changing life of a community in central Mexico as it comes more and more directly into contact with an increasingly global world

In the Shadow of Tungurahua A.J. Faas, 2022-10-14 In the Shadow of Tungurahua is about villagers learning to co live with an active volcano while adapting to disasters largely produced by a protean state s attempts to settle and govern its rural margins It s also about people responding creatively to cooperate confront hardships and craft new futures through locally derived disaster recovery projects and politics

A Companion to the Anthropology of Environmental Health Merrill Singer, 2016-05-31 A Companion to the Anthropology of Environmental Health presents a collection of readings that utilize a medical anthropological approach to explore the interface of humans and the environment in the shaping of health and illness around the world Features the latest ethnographic research from around the world related to the multiple impacts of the environment on health and of societies on their environments Includes contributions from international medical anthropologists conservationists environmental experts public health professionals health clinicians and other social scientists Analyzes the conditions of cultural and social transformation that accompany environmental and ecological impacts in all areas of the world Offers critical perspectives on theoretical and methodological advancements in the anthropology of environmental health along with future directions in the field

Environmental Anthropology Helen Kopnina, Eleanor Shoreman-Ouimet, 2013-07-18 This volume presents new theoretical approaches methodologies subject pools and topics in the field of environmental anthropology Environmental anthropologists are increasingly focusing on self reflection not just on themselves and their impacts on environmental research but also on the reflexive qualities of their subjects and the extent to which these individuals are questioning their own environmental behavior Here contributors confront the very notion of natural resources in granting non human species their subjectivity and arguing for deeper understanding of nature and wilderness beyond the label of ecosystem services By engaging in interdisciplinary efforts these anthropologists present new ways for their colleagues subjects peers and communities to understand the causes of and alternatives to environmental destruction This book demonstrates that environmental anthropology has moved beyond the construction of rural small group theory entering into a mode of solution based methodologies and interdisciplinary theories for understanding human environmental interactions It is focused on post rural existence health and environmental risk assessment on the realm of alternative actions and emphasizes the necessary steps towards preventing environmental crisis Bibliographic Index ,2009 Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck;
