Preface To Romans Notes On The Epistle In Its Literary And Cultural Setting:

A Preface to Romans Christopher Bryan, 2000 Bryan approaches St Paul's letter to the Romans with a number of aims in view. First he wants to show which literary type or genre would have been seen by Paul's contemporaries as being exemplified in the letter. He also attempts to determine what we can surmise of Paul's attitude and approach to the Jewish Bible. The study involves discussion of and comparison with other literature from Paul's time, place and milieu, including other writings attributed to Paul.

An Introduction to the New Testament D. A. Carson, Douglas J. Moo, 2009-05-26 Grasp the message of the New Testament by focusing on the essentials. An Introduction to the New Testament focuses on historical questions dealing with authorship, date, sources, purpose, destination, and so forth, ensuring that the New Testament books will be accurately understood within historical settings. For each New Testament document, the authors also provide a substantial summary of the book's content, discuss the book's theological contribution to the overall canon, and give an account of current studies on the book, including recent literary and social science approaches to interpretation. This second edition reflects significant revision and expansion from the original, making this highly acclaimed text even more valuable. A new chapter provides a historical survey examining Bible study method through the ages. The chapter on Paul has been expanded to include an analysis of debates on the new perspective. The discussion of New Testament epistles has been expanded to form a new chapter. This new edition is an ideal textbook for seminary students and will help a new generation better grasp the message of the New Testament.

Paul and Rhetoric J. Paul Sampley, Peter Lampe, 2013-06-20 Paul and Rhetoric contains essays that have been presented in a seminar called Paul and Rhetoric in the annual meetings of the Studiorum Novi Testamenti Societas, the leading international forum for New Testament and Christian Origin scholars. Translated into English, these essays by leaders in the field and in the topic engage and represent modern scholarship on Paul and rhetorical studies. The foundational essays are listed under the heading State of the Discussion, attempting to take the major rhetorical categories of the time contemporary with Paul: types of rhetoric, invention and arrangement, and figures and tropes, and first lays out where the discussion is now. They then note the problems and highlights where continued discussion and deliberation would be helpful. The Broad Questions section asks what can be learned about reading Paul's letters to congregations in light of ancient epistolography, how theology and rhetoric are related because the two are often treated as if they are alien to one another, and how ancient rhetoric and ancient psychology are associated with one another. All in all, a volume that illustrates, examines, and assesses where we are now in the study of rhetorical traditions in Pauline scholarship, and in some instances suggests the direction of future studies.

Rhetoric at the Boundaries Bruce W. Longenecker, 2005 In Rhetoric at the Boundaries, Bruce W. Longenecker explores the way in which New Testament authors used an ancient rhetorical device to effect smooth transitions, both large and small. His study demonstrates how recognition of this rhetorical technique proves decisive for New Testament interpretation. Longenecker accomplishes this by examining the evidence for chain link interlocks in a variety of ancient sources including the Hebrew scriptures Jewish and Roman authors of the Graeco Roman world and the Graeco Roman rhetoricians He then applies the results of the survey to fifteen problematic passages of the New Testament In each case Longenecker establishes the presence of chain link interlock and highlights the structural literary and theological significance of the rhetorical device for New Testament interpretation

Making Your Way to the Pulpit Jerilee Parker Lewallen, William Hoover Hethcock, 2010-10-15 Making Your Way to the Pulpit is a book for beginning preachers for preachers who will never have a seminary course called homiletics the art of preaching for preachers who studied homiletics with William Hethcock and want a review and for all preachers who are looking for a tested reliable approach to sermon preparation In short this is a book for those who preach regularly or occasionally and would like a clear guide for making their way to the pulpit At the School of Theology Soft University of the South Sewanee Tennessee the Rev Dr William H Hethcock directed field education from 1979 to 1985 and taught homiletics from 1985 until his retirement in 1997 After retiring he continued to teach homiletics on semester contracts at the Soft and the Virginia Theological Seminary VTS He remains active as a teacher speaker on the subject of preaching and preacher Assimilating the work of other scholars Hethcock developed his own process for approaching sermon preparation on a weekly basis This book summarizes and describes the Hethcock method When followed his process reliably gets the preacher to the pulpit with a biblical proclamation that resonates with individuals in today s congregations

Hermeneutics, Linguistics, and the Bible

Stanley E. Porter, 2024-01-25 The volume presents Stanley E Porter s considered thoughts and reflections on key questions of meaning and context addressing the problems of biblical interpretation and how a close collaboration between hermeneutics and linguistics can help to solve them The chapters display Porter s work in both fields examining how hermeneutics functions as a field in modern biblical studies and how the quest for meaning in biblical texts is underpinned by the study of linguistics The volume focuses on context for understanding the meanings of biblical texts Porter suggests that linguists can learn more from the philosophical questions around meaning that hermeneutics apply in their study of biblical texts and that there is more fruitful work to be done in the field of hermeneutics using insights from linguistics

Argumentation and Use of Scripture in Romans 9-11 Filippo Belli, 2010 The dominance of the Scriptures in Romans 9 11 is the decisive factor for their comprehension so that it can be affirmed that here we have an example of scriptural argumentation This work is a systematic study of how and why Paul s argumentation is combined with the scriptural references in these chapters and consequently it deals with rhetorical analysis and scriptural exegesis together At every level of the argumentation inventio dispositio and elocutio it tries to verify how and why the Scriptures enter or not into the rhetorical procedure and in what manner they determine its whole course The detection and the analysis of Paul s particular method of argumentation through the Scriptures permit a better grasp of the content of Rom 9 11 In this perspective which respects the proper characteristics of the discourse the numerous aporias and difficulties which these chapters pose for exegesis are resolved more easily The study discovers the innovative way of reading and interpreting Scripture that the Apostle displays in these chapters As a consequence this permits a better appreciation of the importance that the Scriptures have in Christian proclamation and experience in the way that Paul communicates it to us International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences ,2001 Current Contents. Arts & Humanities Institute for Scientific Information,2001 Bibliographic Index ,2001 Journal of Early Christian Studies ,2000 Focus is on the study of Christianity in the context of late ancient societies and religions from C E 100 700 The Queer Bible Commentary Deryn Guest,2006 A uniquely comprehensive volume of queer theology that covers every book of both testaments It introduces students to a range of hermeneutical principles and strategies employed in queer interpretations of biblical texts American Book Publishing Record ,2000 Elenchus of Biblica Maria J.
